2023 USC SPRING FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Lincoln Riley arrived at USC ready to awaken the sleeping giant. He was the catalyst for the Trojans' resurgence to the top of the college football landscape. And in his first year, he did just that. Going 11-3, Riley tied John Robinson's 1976 record for most victories by a first-year head coach, which also ties the Pac-12 Conference record. The 2022 Trojans equaled the biggest one-season victory turnaround (+7 victories) in USC history. USC's 1962 national champs also won 11 games after winning just 4 in 1961.

Riley also produced another Heisman Trophy winner, 2 Unanimous All-Americans, 5 First Team All-Americans, 6 broken team records and a multitude of other superlatives in his inaugural year.

The 2022 Trojans almost made the College Football Playoff. While finishing the season with a tough loss in the Cotton Bowl, the expectations for 2023 team are at an all-time high.

As Coach Riley said before the 2022 season, "We didn't come here to play for second place. We came here to win championships."

Coach Riley and the Trojans are locked in on winning a national championship and bringing more hardware back to Heritage Hall this fall. And the preparation begins this spring. The job's not finished.

ROSTER OVERVIEW

The Trojans return 82 players from the 2022 squad, including 54 who saw action. Six starters are back on the offensive side of the ball and eight on defense.

The returnees will be joined by an impressive recruiting class which includes 11 transfers and 10 early-enrollee freshmen, including the No. 1 high school recruit in the nation, who are on campus and participating in spring ball. Ten more freshmen who will arrive in the summer complete USC's 2023 signing class.

USC also returns the entire coaching staff for the 2023 season.

PLAYER DEPARTURES

The Trojan offense will be feeling the effects of losing three impactful linemen up front. Brett Neilon and Andrew Vorhees, both First Team All-Americans and four and five-year starters, respectively, were instrumental in USC's offensive success last season. Their outstanding play in the trenches allowed Caleb Williams to lead the offense to have a record-setting season. In addition to being a First-Team All-American, Vorhees was also selected to the All-Pac-12 First Team and was the offensive recipient of the Morris Trophy. Also moving on is fellow offensive lineman Bobby Haskins. Though just at USC for one season, Haksins made an impact on one of the top offensive lines in the nation and helped the unit to become Joe Moore Award semifinalists. The offense also lost All-Pac-12 First Teamer Jordan Addison. Addison, who is expected to be a Top 15 NFL Draft pick, recorded 59 catches for 875 yards and 8 TDs as Caleb Williams' favorite receiver in 2022. Another departed Trojan is Travis Dye. Although Dye was at Troy for just one season, he immediately became the emotional leader of the team and the heartbeat of the program. An instant fan-favorite, Dye's season was cut short due to a broken ankle which ended his season prematurely in the 10th game against Colorado. Before his injury, the All-Pac-12 Second Teamer rushed for 844 yards on 145 carries, averaging 6.1 yards per carry, with 9 touchdowns. Receiver Terrell Bynum (16 receptions for 159 yards and 1 TD in 2022) is gone as well as long-time Trojan tight end Josh Falo (22 receptions for 276 yards and 5 TDs in his career).

Defensively, the Trojans lose Tuli Tuipulotu, a team captain and three-year starter on the defensive line. Tuipulotu, was one of the most disruptive defensive players in the nation in 2022. He led the nation in sacks with 13.5 and was second in the nation in tackles for loss with 22.0 In 2022, he was named the Polynesian College Football Player of the Year, the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, the defensive Morris Trophy winner and was a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Rotary Lombardi Award, the Chuck Bednarik Award, the Ted Hendricks Award, and the Lott IMPACT Trophy. Tuipulotu was also a Unanimous First Team All-American being selected to the First Team for AP, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp and Sporting News. In his career, he recorded 116 tackles, including 32 for loss of 172 yards with 21 sacks for 148 yards. He tallied 5 pass breakups, 4 forced fumbles and 1 fumble recovery in the end zone to score a touchdown. In the secondary, USC loses All-Pac-12 First Teamer Mekhi Blackmon. Blackmon recorded 66 tackles (fourth on the team), including 2.0 for loss of 7 yards in 2022. He led the team with 12 pass breakups and decorated his stat sheet with 3 interceptions, 1 fumble recovery and 1 forced fumble. USC loses Nick Figueroa, a reliable and versatile player who knew the defense so well, he was able to play multiple positions as a lineman and rush end. In his career, he recorded 71 tackles, including 17.5 for loss of 73 yards with 10 sacks for 59 yards, 2 pass breakups, 1 fumble recovery and 1 blocked kick while appearing in 42 games with 21 starts. Figueroa, a standout in the classroom, was named a First Team Academic All-American in 2022 and was a Second Team selection in 2021. USC also loses long-time Trojan Brandon Pili from the defensive line. In his 5-year career, Pili tallied 74 tackles, including 10 for loss of 32 yards with 3.5 sacks for 20 yards, 4 pass breakups, 1 forced fumble and 1 blocked kick while appearing in 52 games with 6 starts. USC also loses linebackers Ralen Goforth (148 tackles, including 4 for losses of 8 yards), 2 breakups, 2 fumble recoveries, 1 interception and 1 forced fumble while appearing in 40 games in his career, with 16 starts) and Tuasivi Nomura (34 tackles, including 1.5 for loss of 5 yards, and 1 pass breakup while appearing in 33 games with 3 starts).

On special teams, the Trojans lose long-time kickoff man, Alex Stadthaus. He had touchbacks on 122 of his 253 kickoffs (48.2%) and has made 11 tackles in his career while appearing in 45 games.

2023 SCHEDULE

The Trojans will play seven home games in 2023, the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum's centennial celebration. 2023 marks 100 years since the first collegiate varsity football game was played in the venue on Oct. 6, 1923 as USC defeated Pomona 23-7. Troy will welcome league opponents Stanford, Arizona, Utah, Washington and UCLA to the Coliseum along with non-conference foes San Jose State and Nevada. The Trojans' five road games will be at Arizona State, Colorado, Notre Dame, California and Oregon.

USC, which is playing a Week Zero game, has two byes: one on Sept. 16 and one in the final week of the regular season on Nov. 25. The Trojans will face nine league teams in 2023 (all but Oregon State and Washington State). USC hasn't faced Washington at home and Oregon on the road since 2015.

USC will open the 2023 slate with a Week Zero matchup against San Jose State on Aug. 26. This will be the sixth time USC has faced off against San Jose State, with the most recent encounter occurring in the fall of 2021, where the Trojans defeated the Spartans 30-7 in the Coliseum. USC is 5-0 all-time against San Jose State, with all of the games held at the Coliseum.

The Trojans then welcome Nevada to the Coliseum on Sept. 2 of Labor Day Weekend. The 2023 Trojan-Wolf Pack matchup will mark the 100th anniversary of the teams' 1923 meeting in the second-ever collegiate varsity football game played in the then-new Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The game was played on Oct. 13, 1923, and USC defeated Nevada 33-0.

The Trojans start Pac-12 play the following week with Stanford (with new coach Troy Taylor) on Sept. 9, USC's third-straight home game. It will be the Pac-12's first league game of the 2023 campaign.

After a bye on Sept. 16, Troy next begins a nine-week stretch of games. USC visits Arizona State (with new coach Kenny Dillingham) on Sept. 23 for its first road test of the season, and then travels to Colorado (with new coach Deion Sanders) on Sept. 30. USC returns home to face Arizona on Oct. 7.

The Trojans take a break from conference play to travel to South Bend, Ind. to challenge Notre Dame on Oct. 14, and then return back to the Coliseum to take on Utah on Oct. 21.

USC visits California on Oct. 28 and then faces Washington at home on Nov. 4, the two teams' first match up in Los Angeles since 2015.

The Trojans visit Oregon for the first time since 2015 on Nov. 11, and then wrap up conference play hosting crosstown rival UCLA on Nov. 18. USC will have a bye on Nov. 25 of Thanksgiving weekend. This is the first time since 2017 that USC has concluded the regular season with a bye.

The Pac-12 Football Championship Game will be on Friday, Dec. 1 in Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas, Nev.

OFFENSE

Heisman Trophy winner Caleb Williams returns to lead the Trojan offense along with 5 other offensive starters: veteran offensive linemen Justin Dedich and Jonah Monheim and receivers Brenden Rice, Tahj Washington and Mario Williams. Others returning with starting experience in Riley's system are running back Austin Jones, tight ends Malcolm Epps and Lake McRee, receiver Michael Jackson III and offensive linemen Courtland Ford, Mason Murphy and Gino Quinones.

The Trojan offense averaged 506.6 yards ranking No. 3 in the nation, including 335.4 passing yards per game to also rank 3rd nationally. USC protected the ball and only lost 7 turnovers ranking No. 1 in the nation and ranked No. 2 in the nation in passes had intercepted with 5. USC ranked No. 2 in the nation in 3rd Down Conversion Percentage with 0.536 and ranked No. 3 in the nation in First Down Offense (359). Ten players who caught a pass are back from last season.

The 2022 team now holds the USC record for most yards passing in a single season with 4,696 yards in 14 games, most passes attempted in a single season with 515, most touchdown passes in a single season with 43, lowest percentage of passes had intercepted with 0.97%, 5 in 515 attempts, most games scoring 30+ points with 12, most games scoring 40+ points with 10 and now ties the USC single-game record for most touchdowns on interception returns with 3 vs. Rice.

QUARTERBACKS

Heisman Trophy winner Caleb Williams, the record-setting Unanimous First Team All-American quarterback, should again be America's top player as he returns for his second season at USC as a junior in 2023. He will attempt to be just the second player ever to win a second Heisman. In addition to being the 88th recipient of the Heisman Trophy, Williams was named the 2022 Walter Camp Player of the Year, the 2022 AP Player of the Year, the 2022 Maxwell Award winner, presented to the best player in college football, the 2022 Sporting News College Football Player of the Year, the 2022 CBS Sports Player of the Year, the 2022 Action Sports Player of the Year and the 2022 CFPA National Performer of the Year. He was a Unanimous All-American being selected to the First Team for AP, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp and Sporting News. He was selected as the 2022 Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year and was named to the 2022 All-Pac-12 First Team. Overall in 2022, he completed 333-of-500 passes (66.7%) for 4,537 yards and 42 TDs with just 5 INTs, plus he rushed for 382 yards and 10 TDs. He was first nationally in passing TDs (42, first in Pac-12) and points responsible for per game (22.3, first in Pac-12). He was third nationally in passing yards (4.537) and fourth nationally in passing yards per game (324.1). He was fifth nationally in passing efficiency (168.5, first in Pac-12) and total offense (351.4). He was seventh nationally in yards per pass attempt (9.07, first in Pac-12).

Also returning is redshirt sophomore backup quarterback Miller Moss. He saw action in 5 games (Rice, Fresno State, Arizona State, Colorado and the Pac-12 Championship versus Utah) in 2022, and went 12-of-14 (85.71%) for 159 yards and 1 TD.

Three more quarterbacks, junior Jake Jensen and sophomores Keegan Patterson and Gage Roy return to Lincoln Riley's room.

Joining the Trojans this spring is freshman Malachi Nelson, the No. 1 recruit in the nation per ESPN. The decorated quarterback from Los Alamitos HS (Calif.) was named a 2023 Under Armour All-American and a 2023 Polynesian Bowl All-Star. He also competed at 2022 Elite 11 Finals. Nelson will add to Riley's quarterback room.

RUNNING BACKS

USC lost running back Travis Dye, the heartbeat of the 2022 squad. However, they have members of the backfield returning.

Redshirt senior Austin Jones returns as USC's most experienced back. Jones stepped in as the feature-back for Dye when he suffered a season-ending injury against Colorado. He contributed in all 14 games with 4 starts in 2022. He racked up 727 rushing yards on 135 attempts (5.2 avg) and scored 6 TDs. He also had 25 receptions for 267 receiving yards (10.7 avg).

In his freshman debut, Raleek Brown, who returns to the Trojan running back room, contributed in all 14 games in 2022. He rushed for 227 yards on 42 carries (5.4 avg) with 3 TDs, caught 16 passes for 175 yards (10.97 avg) with 3 TDs. Brown also returned kickoffs for USC. He had 24 returns for a total of 517 yards (21.54 avg) with a long of 40 yards to finish the season ranked No. 22 in the nation for combined kick returns.

Redshirt senior Darwin Barlow also returns with experience. He saw action in 9 games (all but Arizona State, Washington State, Arizona, Cal and Tulane) as a redshirt junior in 2022. He rushed for a total of 96 yards on 16 carries (avg 6.0) and 3 TDs. He also had 3 receptions for 34 yards (11.33 avg).

Redshirt junior Matt Colombo, who has yet to see action, also returns to the Trojan squad.

From the transfer portal, Riley picked up MarShawn Lloyd from South Carolina. The redshirt junior was South Carolina's rushing leader as a redshirt sophomore running back in 2022. In his 3-year career at South Carolina (2020-22) while appearing in 21 games (with 8 starts), he ran for 801 yards on 175 carries (4.6 avg) with 10 TDs, caught 21 passes for 220 yards (10.5 avg) with 2 TDs.

Two freshmen, Quinten Joyner and A'Marion Peterson, enrolled at USC this spring. Joyner was selected to compete at the 2023 All-American Bowl and the 2023 Polynesian Bowl. Joyner was named to the 2022 All District 25-6A First Team after he rushed for 1,794 yards on 196 carries (9.2 avg.) for 25 TDs and caught 5 passes for 73 yards while playing running back for Manor HS (Texas). He tallied 3 kickoffs for 106 yards (35.3 avg.) with a long of 46 yards and recorded 14 punts for 408 yards (29.1 avg) with a long of 46 yards. Joyner had 2 kickoff returns for 44 yards (22.0 avg) with a long of 24.

Peterson was named the 2022 All-District 3-4A Division II MVP as a senior running back on varsity at Hirschi HS (Texas). He rushed for 330 yards on 24 carries (13.8 avg.) with 6 TDs and caught 3 passes for 54 yards, helping Hirschi go 9-3 overall and place first in their district.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Once again, Riley's wide receiver room is not lacking in depth. Although they lost All-Pac-12 First Teamer Jordan Addison, returning are experienced wide outs redshirt senior Tahj Washington, senior Brenden Rice and junior Mario Williams.

AUSTIN JONES

In 2022, while appearing in all 14 games with 11 starts, Washington had 50 receptions for 785 yards (15.7 avg) and scored 6 TDs. He also was a vital member of the Trojan special teams. He was named an All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention.

Rice competed in all 14 games with 12 starts in his first season with the Trojans in 2022. He recorded 39 catches (4th for USC) for 611 yards (15.7 avg) with 4 TDs. Rice also handled kick returns. He recorded 3 returns for 49 yards (16.3 avg) with a long of 18 yards.

Williams saw action in 12 games with 9 starts during his first season with the Trojans in 2022. He caught 40 passes (3rd for USC) for 631 yards (15.8 avg) with 5 TDs (3rd for USC). Williams also fielded 2 kickoff returns for a total of 7 yards.

Junior Michael Jackson III (17 receptions racking up 236 yards (13.88 avg) with 4 TDs in 2022) and redshirt sophomore Kyron Hudson (15 receptions racking up 152 yards (10.13 avg) with 3 TDs in 2022) return for the Trojans.

Five receivers who have yet to play at USC—senior Corey Nerhus, redshirt juniors Danny Ryan and Ty Shamblin and redshirt sophomore Josiah Zamora and sophomore Austin Overn—will also be available for the Trojans.

USC picked up Arizona transfer, junior Dorian Singer, at the semester. He appeared in all 12 games with 11 starts in his sophomore season. He had a breakout year in yards and receptions marking his first 1,000-yard-plus season earning AP All-Pac-12 First Team and All-Pac-12 Second Team honors. He finished the season with a career-high 1,105 yards on a career-high 66 receptions, and 6 TDs and recorded four 100-plus yard games. He was named to the 2022 Biletnikoff Award Midseason Watch List.

Also joining the wide receiver corps are freshmen Zachariah Branch and Makai Lemon.

Branch tallied 753 yards on 45 receptions with 11 TDs and recorded 5 punt returns for 90 yards (18.0 avg.) as a senior wide receiver at Bishop Gorman (Nev.). He competed in the 2023 Under Armour All-American Game where he was the Team Phantom captain. He was also chosen to play in the 2023 Polynesian Bowl. He was named to the 2022 Nevada Preps All-Southern Nevada First Team after helping the Gaels win the Class 5A state title.

Lemon was named a 2023 Under Armour

BRENDEN RICE

TAHJ WASHINGTON

All-American and was selected to compete in the 2023 Polynesian Bowl. Lemon was also a Polynesian High School Player of the Year finalist. He made the 2022 All-CIF Division I Team, the 2022 MaxPreps All-America First Team, the 2022 MaxPreps California All-State First Team and the 2022 Los Angeles Times All-Star Team as a senior wide receiver at Los Alamitos HS (Calif.). He caught 69 passes for 1,044 yards (15.1 avg.) and 12 touchdowns to help Los Alamitos place first in the Sunset League and reach the CIF Southern Section Division 1 semifinals. He also recorded 15 yards on 3 carries (5.0 avg.). On special teams, he recorded 8 kickoff returns for 267 yards (33.4 avg.).

Freshman Ja'Kobi Lane will join the squad in the summer for camp.

TIGHT ENDS

Although the tight end room is one of USC's smaller position groups, it is not lacking in experience. Malcolm Epps, Lake McRee and Jude Wolfe have all seen action for the Trojans.

Epps saw action in all 14 games as a redshirt senior in 2022. He tallied 3 catches for 18 yards (6.0 avg), 2 touchdowns and 1 INT. He also contributed on USC's kickoff return unit. McRee saw action in 13 games with 2 starts as a redshirt freshman in 2022. He recorded 10 passes for 106 yards (10.6 avg) and scored 2 TDs. Wolfe appeared in 3 games on special teams after returning from a summer injury as a redshirt junior in 2022.

The untested Luke Otte and Carson Tabaracci move over from the defensive side of the ball to compete at tight end as a sophomore and redshirt freshman, respectively, in 2023.

Freshman Kade Eldridge will join the team in the summer, while fellow 2023 signee Walker Lyons will enroll in the fall of 2024 as he will be leaving to serve a Mormon mission in Norway.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

The USC offensive line unit was a Joe Moore Award Semifinalist in 2022 and will return 5 Trojans who started at various points of the season. All-American First Teamers Brett Neilon and Andrew Vorhees, as well as impact player Bobby Haskins will be missing from the Trojans trenches on the offense this fall.

Justin Dedich, USC's most experienced lineman who has seen action at a multitude of positions, returns for his final season as a redshirt senior at center. In 2022, he started 10 games at right guard, 2 games at left guard and 1 game at center, filling in for the starter, Brett Neilon, after he suffered a season ending injury. He was named to the Pro Football Focus All-American Third Team and was an All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention.

Redshirt junior Courtland Ford saw action in 10 games and made 3 starts at left tackle during the 2022 season. Redshirt junior Jonah Monheim started in all 14 games on the offensive line in 2022. He started 11 times at right tackle and 3 times at right guard. He was named an All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention. Redshirt sophomore Mason Murphy saw action in all 14 games, starting in 5 in 2022. Redshirt senior Gino Quinones saw action in all 14 games, with 2 starts in 2022. He started once at right guard and once at left guard.

Other offensive linemen returning are redshirt senior Cooper Lovelace, senior Grant Tucker, redshirt juniors Andres Dewerk and Andrew Milek and sophomore Killian O'Connor.

Two experienced transfers will join the offensive line unit. Redshirt seniors Jarrett Kingston (from Washington State) and Michael Tarquin (from Florida) enrolled at USC this spring.

JONAH MONHEIM

JUSTIN DEDICH

In his 5-year career at Washington State (2018-22), Kingston appeared in 37 games on the offensive line in his career with 26 starts (16 starts at left guard and 10 starts at left tackle). Last season, he was named to the 2022 All-Pac-12 Conference Honorable Mention.

In his 4-year career at Florida (2019-22), Tarquin appeared in 34 games on the offensive line in his career with 20 starts (10 starts at left guard and 10 starts at left tackle).

Also joining the group is freshman Elijah Paige. He made the 2022 Arizona 6A Northeast Valley All-Region list as a senior offensive lineman at Pinnacle HS (Ariz.). He was one of four player-elected captains for the 2022-23 Pinnacle squad.

Freshmen Micah Banuelos, Alani Noa, Tobias Raymond and Amos Talalele will join the team in the summer for camp.

DEFENSE

Although the Trojans defense is losing its leader in Unanimous All-American Tuli Tuipulotu, there are many familiar faces returning. First Team All-American defensive back Calen Bullock returns among seven other starters including inside linebackers Shane Lee and Eric Gentry, defensive linemen Stanley Ta'ufo'ou and Tyrone Taleni and defensive backs Jaylin Smith, Max Williams and Ceyair Wright. Others returning with starting experience in defensive coordinator Alex Grinch's system are defensive backs Bryson Shaw, Jacobe Covington and Latrell McCutchin and rush ends Solomon Byrd and Romello Height.

In 2022, USC led the nation in turnover margin (1.57). This was quite an improvement from 2021 when the Trojans were ranked No. 74 in the nation in the same category (-0.08). The turnover battle was a major focus for the Trojans as they ranked No. 3 in the nation with 19 passes intercepted by 11 different players. USC ranked No. 5 in the nation in turnovers gained with 29.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

The Trojan defensive line will be feeling the loss of Tuipulotu, but will have veteran leadership as well as a mix of new faces.

USC's most experienced returning members of the defensive line are Tyrone Taleni (30 tackles, including 7.5 for loss and 7 sacks, 3 QB hurries and 1 forced fumble while appearing in 22 games with 9 starts) and Stanley Ta'ufo'ou (46 tackles, including 7.0 for a loss (with 1 sack), 2 fumble recoveries and 2 QB hurries in his career while appearing in 31 games with 25 starts).

Junior Korey Foreman (24 tackles, including 4.5 for loss with 2.5 sacks and 1 INT while appearing in 23 games) returns looking to make an impact as an upperclassman.

Redshirt senior Solomon Tuliaupupu, who has been plagued by foot and knee injuries throughout his entire career, saw his first action in 2022 recording 10 tackles, including 3 for loss (with 2.5 sacks) and 1 QB hurry while appearing in all 14 games.

Other returning members who hope to compete for time in the trenches are redshirt seniors Sinjun Astani (4 tackles), Earl Barquet Jr. (21 tackles, including 3.5 for losses with 2.5 sacks), De'jon Benton (20 tackles, including 1.5 for losses) and redshirt junior Jamar Sekona (11 tackles, including 1 for loss with 1 sack and 2 QB hurries).

Five more defense linemen return who have yet to decorate their stat sheet: redshirt senior Jordan Russell, redshirt junior Kobe Pepe (3 game appearances), redshirt sophomore Colin Mobley (2 game appearances) and Devan Thompkins (1 game appearance).

Bolstering the defensive line unit are two transfer linemen: redshirt seniors Kyon Barrs and Jack Sullivan and sophomore Anthony Lucas. Transferring from Arizona, Barrs recorded 102 tackles, including 12.5 for losses (with 5 sacks) while appearing in 38 games with 23 starts during his 4-year career as a Wildcat. In 2021, he made the All-Pac-12 Second Team. Sullivan arrives at Troy from Purdue, where he tallied 85 tackles, including 13.5 for losses (with 9.0 sacks), 7 pass deflections and 1 forced fumble while appearing in 46 games with 19 starts during his 5-year career. Lucas saw action in 7 games during his freshman season at Texas A&M collecting 7 tackles with 1 for loss.

Freshmen Elijah Hughes and Deijon Laffitte will enroll at USC in the summer.

RUSH ENDS

After losing the steady presence of Nick Figueroa, a utility man who could play both as a lineman and a rush end, USC will look to fill this position.

Redshirt senior Solomon Byrd, who moved to rush end midseason in 2022 (115 tackles, including 20 for losses with 14 sacks, 3 forced fumbles, 2 fumble recoveries and 2 pass breakups and 1 QB hurry while appearing in 37 games with 11 starts), returns for his final season.

Redshirt junior Romello Height (18 tackles, including 3 for losses, while appearing in 12 games with 2 starts) returns from an injury that cut his 2022 season short.

Untested sophomore Garrett Pomerantz will also be available.

SHANE LEE

A transfer rush end joined the squad this spring in redshirt senior Jamil Muhammad from Georgia Southern.

In his 3-year career at Georgia Southern (2020-22), Muhammad had 70 tackles, including 11.0 for losses (with 7.5 sacks) and 1 INT, 4 pass deflections, 3 forced fumbles and 1 forced fumble while appearing in 34 games with 10 starts.

Also joining the Trojans this spring is early enrollee, freshman Sam Greene. He helped the St. Frances Academy (Md.) Panthers earn the No. 1 ranking in the final state MaxPreps Top 25 as a senior.

Freshmen David Peevy and Braylan Shelby will join the team in the summer.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

The inside linebackers return some of the Trojans' most productive defenders, while adding some fresh talent to the room.

USC captain, redshirt senior Shane Lee returns to lead the defense. In his 4-year career (3 years at Alabama and 1 year at USC), he's made 174 tackles, including 15.5 for losses (with 9.5 sacks), plus 3 INTs (1 of which he ran back for a TD), 3 forced fumbles, 2 pass deflections, a fumble recovery and a QB hurry while appearing in 42 games (with 25 starts). He was selected as an All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention in 2022.

Junior Eric Gentry, another 2022 standout, is back ready to contribute for USC. He's recorded 116 tackles, including 9 for loss (with 3 sacks), 5 pass breakups, 3 QB hurries, 2 forced fumbles and 1 INT while appearing in 23 games with 12 starts.

Two more returning linebackers with experience are Raesjon Davis (8 tackles) and Chris Thompson Jr. (20 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 1 yard).

ERIC GENTRY

Also battling for action will be junior Theo Bravos, sophomore Roman Marchetti and redshirt freshmen Garrison Madden.

The highly recruited Tackett Curtis enrolled at USC this spring. He was the 2022 MaxPreps Louisiana High School Player of the Year and won the State Championship game MVP as a senior linebacker. He led Many HS (La.) to win the Louisiana 2A state championship. Curtis recorded 112 total tackles, 16 for loss, 6 sacks and 3 interceptions in his final season at Many. He was a finalist for the high school Butkus Award which recognizes the top linebacker in the nation. He was named the 2022 2a-3 Defensive MVP and earned placement on the 2022 2a-3 All-District Team. He also earned placement on the 2022 MaxPreps All-America First Team.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Junior Calen Bullock, a First Team All-American will lead the Trojan secondary in 2023. He started in all 14 games and led the team in INTs with 5 (ranked 11th in the nation). He also tallied 48 tackles (6th on the team) and 5 pass breakups (T-2nd on the team). He was named to the All-Pac-12 Second Team. In his 3-year career, he has 87 tackles, 7 INTs (running 1 back for a TD) and 8 pass breakups while appearing in 26 games with 14 starts.

Redshirt senior Bryson Shaw was a standout for the Trojans in 2022 recording 50 tackles (5th on the team), including 1 for loss, plus 4 pass breakups, 1 INT and 1 fumble recovery while appearing in all 14 games and starting 5 times. In his 4-year collegiate career (3 years at Ohio State, 1 year at USC), he has 112 tackles (including 1.5 for loss), 8 pass breakups, 2 INTs, 2 fumble recoveries while appearing in 35 games (with 17 starts).

Redshirt senior Max Williams, who returned to the field in 2022 after recovering from an injury, led the Trojans in tackles with 79 and in forced fumbles with 2. He was named an All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention. In his career, has 107 tackles, including 5.5 for losses of 9 yards (with 1.5 sacks for minus 6 yards), plus 7 pass breakups, 3 forced fumbles, 2 INTs and in his career. He has appeared in 24 games, starting 18 times.

Junior Jaylin Smith and redshirt sophomore Ceyair Wright, both had strong performances in 2022 and will return to contribute in 2023. Smith has 48 tackles in his career, including 3 for loss (with 1 sack), 2 pass breakups, an INT, and a forced fumble while appearing in 21 games with 10 starts. Wright has tallied 30 tackles, 1 INT and 2 pass breakups while appearing in 16 games (with 11 starts).

Also with starting experience are redshirt junior Jacobe Covington (19 tackles with a sack and 4 pass breakups) and Latrell McCutchin (31 tackles, including 1 for loss (with 1 sack), plus a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and a QB hurry) who will both look to contribute this season.

Also competing for playing time will be redshirt sophomores Anthony Beavers Jr. (12 tackles, including 1.5 for losses), Prophet Brown (12 tackles) and Xamarion Gordon (10 tackles and 1 INT), sophomores Domani Jackson (2 tackles and 1 pass breakup) and Fabian Ross (2 game appearances).

MAX WILLIAMS

Redshirt freshman Zion Branch and redshirt junior Joshua Jackson Jr. (9 tackles, a pass breakup and an INT) are both coming back from injury this season and eager to compete.

Others in the mix are an untested trio: redshirt senior Vincent Ragsdale, junior L Simpson, and redshirt sophomore Daniel Jimenez-Fulton.

Redshirt senior transfer Christian Rolland-Wallace joined the Trojans in the secondary this spring. In his 4-year career at Arizona (2019-22), he had 169 tackles, including 3.5 for loss (with 1.5 sacks), 2 INTs, 18 pass deflections and 2 forced fumbles in 41 games with 37 starts.

Also transferring to Troy is senior Mason Cobb from Oklahoma State. Cobb recorded 106 tackles, including 16.0 for losses (with 3 sacks) and 1 INT, 1 pass deflection and 1 forced fumble while appearing in 31 games with 13 starts in his 3-year career at Oklahoma State (2020-22). In 2022, he was named to the All-Big-12 Second Team.

Freshmen Maliki Crawford and Christian Pierce both enrolled early to join the Trojans for spring ball. Crawford was named to the 2022 All-CIF Division 4 Team, the 2022 VC Star All Channel League First Team and the VC Star 1st Team All-County as a cornerback at Pacifica HS (Calif.). Crawford has experience playing in all three facets of the game. He also competed at the 2023 Polynesian Bowl. Pierce was named to the 2022 All-Baseline League and selected as the League Defensive MVP as a safety at Rancho Cucamonga HS (Calif.).

SPECIAL TEAMS

The Trojan special teams unit returning most of its members and adding a transfer kicker/punter to bolster the competition.

USC only punted the ball 32 times last season. Sophomore running back Raleek Brown was a bright spot for the Trojan special teams unit as he was in the Top 25 in the nation in combined kick returns.

PUNTERS

Aadyn Sleep-Dalton, who enrolled in USC in the fall of 2022 after arriving in the U.S. from Australia, was USC's punter as a junior in 2022. He averaged 40.3 yards on his 30 punts in 2022, of which 8 pinned opponents within the 20, 1 traveled 50+ yards and 0 touchbacks. He also had a tackle and appeared in 12 games.

In 2022, USC fans also learned that Heisman-winning quarterback Caleb Williams can punt. He recorded 2 punts against Notre Dame where he averaged 42.0 yards with a long of 58 yards.

Also available are three untested punters: redshirt senior Will Rose, redshirt junior Michael McAllister and junior Garth White. None has seen game action as a punter.

In the spring, junior transfer Eddie Czaplicki joined the Trojan squad from Arizona State. In his 2-year career as a Sun Devil (2021-22), he handled punting and kickoffs duties. He's recorded 95 punts for 4,253 yards (44.8 avg.) with a long of 75 yards and 29 going 50 yards or more. He has touchbacks on 29 of his 56 kickoffs (51.8%).

AADYN SLEEP-DALTON

PLACEKICKERS

Redshirt sophomore Denis Lynch, who handled kicking duties for the Trojans in 2022, returns this season. Lynch accumulated 119 total points (ranked 10th in the nation for total points scored) going 74-of-74 on extra points and 15-of-22 (68.1%) on field goals in 2022. His season long came against UCLA when he nailed a 49-yard field goal at the end of the first half, making the score 20-21. Lynch was also perfect on field goals from 40-49 yards going 8-8. He also had 2 kickoffs this season, totaling 101 yards.

Competing with him for the starting job will be both Czaplicki and White.

SNAPPERS

Jac Casasante returns as USC's starting long snapper after filling that role in 2022. Senior Daniel Meunier and redshirt junior Nathan Weneta are also available.

HOLDERS

Will Rose returns to his role as the Trojan holder in 2023.

PUNT RETURNERS

Michael Jackson III is the only returning Trojan that handled punt return duties. He tallied 70 yards on 11 returns (6.36 avg) with a long of 17 yards.

Dorian Singer has punt return experience from his time at Arizona, and Zachariah Branch returned punts in high school.

KICKOFF RETURNERS

Four returning Trojans shared kickoff return duties in 2022. Raleek Brown had 24 returns for a total of 517 yards (21.54 avg) with a long of 40 yards to finish the season ranked No. 22 in the nation for combined kick returns.

Brenden Rice also handled kick returns. He recorded 3 returns for 49 yards (16.3 avg) with a long of 18 yards. Tahj Washington had 3 kickoff returns for 75 yards (25.0 avg). Mario Williams also fielded 2 kickoff returns for a total of 7 yards.

Three early enrollee freshmen have experience from high school fielding kickoff returns: Zachariah Branch, Quinten Joyner and Makai Lemon.

(74) COURTLAND FORD
Offensive Lineman, 6-6, 305, Jr.*/Sr.
Cedar Hill, Texas (Cedar Hill HS)

CAREER: He has appeared in 20 games in his career, with 12 starts (11 at left tackle, 1 at left guard).

2023: Ford looks to once again be a significant contributor on the Trojan offensive line as a redshirt junior in 2023.

2022: Ford saw action in 10 games (all but Fresno State, Oregon State, Washington State and Utah) and made 3 starts at left tackle during the 2022 season. He helped the Trojan offensive line unit to be selected as a Joe Moore Award Semifinalist.

2021: The precocious Ford started USC's first 8 games (San Jose State, Stanford, Washington State, Oregon State, Colorado, Utah, Notre Dame, Arizona) at left offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2021. He appeared in 9 games overall in 2021 (also UCLA). When he and Jonah Monheim both started against San Jose State in 2021, it marked the first time since at least 1984 when complete records are available that USC started freshmen at both tackle spots. He missed the Arizona State game with a leg injury and then sat out the BYU and California games with mononucleosis.

2020: Ford appeared in 1 game (a start at left guard against Washington State and he played well) as a first-year freshman offensive lineman in 2020.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2019 PrepStar All-Central Region, AP All-State 6A second team and All-District 7-6A first team as a senior offensive tackle at Cedar Hill (Tex.) High.

As a 2018 junior, he made All-District 7-6A first team and Dallas Morning News All-Area second team.

Santa Ana, Calif. (Mater Dei HS)

2023: Tuliaupupu, who saw the first action of his collegiate career in 2022, will look to compete for playing time on the defensive line as a redshirt senior in 2023.

2022: Tuliaupupu recorded 10 tackles, including 3 for loss (with 2.5 sacks) and 1 QB hurry while appearing in all 14 games as a redshirt senior in 2022.

He recorded 1 tackle (the first of his career), including 0.5 for loss of 2 yards (with 0.5 sack for minus 2 yards) against Rice. He collected 2 tackles, including 0.5 for loss of 1 yard versus Stanford. He posted 1 tackle, including 1 for loss of 2 yards (with 1 sack for minus 2 yards against Arizona State. He had 1 tackle against Utah, Arizona, Colorado and UCLA, and had 1 QB hurry versus California. He notched 2 tackles, including 1 for loss of 4 yards (with 1 sack for minus 4 yards) in the Cotton Bowl against Tulane.

2021: Tuliaupupu, whose USC career has been slowed by foot and knee injuries, did not see action as a redshirt junior inside linebacker in 2021. He missed 2021 spring practice while recuperating from a 2020 knee injury.

2020: Tuliaupupu, after being sidelined his first 2 seasons at USC with a foot injury, was hoping to be able to compete for playing time at inside linebacker as a redshirt sophomore in 2020, but he suffered a knee injury during 2020 summer workouts and had surgery that sidelined him for the season.

2019: Tuliaupupu, a redshirt freshman inside linebacker, did not see action in 2019 while recovering from a 2018 foot injury that required additional surgery in 2019 fall camp. After the season, he was granted a sixth year of eligibility by the NCAA for medical reasons.

2018: Tuliaupupu redshirted as a first-year freshman inside linebacker in 2018 while sidelined following pre-season foot surgery. He was slowed in 2019 spring drills while recuperating from the foot injury.

(13) CALEB WILLIAMS
Quarterback, 6-1, 220, Jr./Jr.
Washington, D.C. (Gonzaga College HS/ Oklahoma)

CAREER: Williams holds the USC single-season record for total offense (4,919 yards), most touchdowns scored rushing and passing (52), passing completions (333), passes attempted (500), most passing yards gained (4,537), most touchdown passes thrown (42), lowest rate of interceptions (1%, 5 in 500 attempts) and highest passing efficiency rating (168.5). He is tied for the USC single-season record for most consecutive 5-touchdown pass games with 2 (tied with Sam Darnold in 2016 and Kedon Slovis in 2020). He holds the USC single-game record for most yards running and passing (503 vs. UCLA in 2022). His 382 rushing yards in 2022 were the most by a Trojan quarterback in the last 70 years when complete records were first available.

2023: Heisman Trophy-winning Williams, the record-setting Unanimous First Team All-American quarterback, should again be America's top player as he returns for his second season at USC as a junior in 2023. He will attempt to be just the second player ever to win a second Heisman.

2022: After transferring from Oklahoma in the spring of 2022, Williams had a historic 2022 season as the starting quarterback at USC which culminated in him being named the 88th recipient of the Heiman Trophy. He is USC's seventh official winner of college football's most prestigious award. Williams joins an impressive fraternity of Trojan greats who have earned his award before him: Mike Garrett (1965), O.J. Simpson (1968), Charles White (1979), Marcus Allen (1981), Carson Palmer (2002), Matt Leinart (2004) and Reggie Bush (2005, later vacated). He was named the 2022 Walter Camp Player of the Year (joining 5 other Trojans to have been so honored, Simpson in 1967 and 1968, White in 1979, Allen in 1981, Leinart in 2004 and Bush in 2005). He was also named the 2022 AP Player of the Year (joining Leinart in 2004 and Bush in 2005). He won the 2022 Maxwell Award, presented to the best player in college football (joining Simpson in 1968, White in 1979 and Allen in 1981). He was named the 2022 Sporting News College Football Player of the Year (joining Simpson 1968, White, 1979, Allen 1981, Palmer, 2002 and Bush 2005). He was also named the 2022 CBS Sports Player of the Year, the 2022 Action Sports Player of the Year and the 2022 CFPA National Performer of the Year. He was a Unanimous All-American being selected to the First Team for AP, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp and Sporting News. He was selected as the 2022 Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year and was named to the 2022 All-Pac-12 First Team. Overall in 2022, he completed 333-of-500 passes (66.7%) for 4,537 yards and 42 TDs with just 5 INTs, plus he rushed for 382 yards and 10 TDs. He was first nationally in passing TDs (42, first in Pac-12) and points responsible for per game (22.3, first in Pac-12). He was third nationally in passing yards (4.537) and fourth nationally in passing yards per game (324.1). He was fifth nationally in passing efficiency (168.5, first in Pac-12) and total offense (351.4). He was seventh nationally in yards per pass attempt (9.07, first in Pac-12).

He hit 86.3% of his passes (19-of-22) for 249 yards and 2 TDs with no picks against Rice. His 86.3 completion percentage was the best by a Trojan quarterback with a minimum of 20 attempts since Matt Barkley had a 95.0 completion percentage vs. Colorado on Oct. 20, 2012. He also ran for a game-high 68 yards on 6 carries. He went 20-of-27 for 342 yards and 4 TDs with no picks against Stanford. He also ran for 4 yards on 9 carries. Williams was named the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week, the Maxwell Award Player of the Week, the CFPA National Performer of the Week and was selected to the Davey O'Brien Great 8 List and Manning Award Stars of the Week List for his efforts in the game. He went 25-of-37 for 284 yards and 2 TDs with no interceptions against Fresno State. He also ran for a net of 1 yard on 12 carries with 2 TDs. His 2 rushing TDs were the most in a game by a Trojan QB since Sam Darnold scored twice on the ground on Sept. 29, 2017 at Washington State. He was named to the DC Touchdown Club Washington Metro College Player of the Week Honor Roll. He went 16-of-36 (.444) for 180 yards and 1 TD with no interceptions against Oregon State. He also rushed for 27 yards on 9 carries. He went 27-of 37 (.730) for 348 yards and 3 TDs with 1 INT against Arizona State. He also rushed for 44 yards on 8 carries with 1 TD. He was named to the DC Touchdown Club Washington Metro College Player of the Week Honor Roll. He went 15-of-29 (.517) for 188 yards and 2 TDs against Washington State. He also rushed for 34 yards on 9 carries. He went 25-of-42 (.595) for 381 yards and 5 TDs against Utah. He also rushed for 57 yards on 8 carries. He went 31-of-45 (.689) for career-best 411 yards and 5 TDs against Arizona. He also rushed for 14 yards on 4 carries. He was named to the Davey O'Brien Great 8 List and the DC Touchdown Club Washington Metro College Player of the Week Honor Roll. He went 26-for-41 (.634) for 360 yards and 4 TDs against California. He also rushed for 38 yards on 7 carries and 1 TD. Since the 2004 football season, no QB has thrown more TDs through their first 9 games while also throwing 1 or fewer INTs than Williams with 28 TDs and 1 INT. Through their first 9 games, Justin Fields of Ohio State had 27 TDs and 1 INT in 2019, and Tua Tagovailoa had 27 TDs and 1 INT in 2018. This marked the second time in the last four seasons that a USC QB has had 5 games with 340+ passing yards. Kedon Slovis had 5 games with 340+ yards in 2019. He went 14-of-26 (.538) for 268 yards and 3 TDs with 1 INT against Colorado. He also rushed for a net of -4 yards on 8 carries, but scored 2 TDs. Williams was the first USC QB to have 2 games with multiple rushing TDs in the same season since complete records were first available for this stat in 1972. This was the fourth consecutive game that Williams had accounted for 5 total TDs. He went 32-of-43 (.744) for 470 yards and 2 TDs with 1 INT against UCLA. He also rushed for 33 yards on 8 carries with 1 TD. Williams' 503 total yards set a USC single game record. The previous record was held by Kedon Slovis who had 502 yards versus UCLA in 2019. Williams' 503 total yards was also the most by any player in the series' 92-game history. Williams had a 92.3 PFF passing grade against UCLA. He was named the DC Touchdown Club Washington Metro College Player of the Week, the Manning Award Star of the Week and the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week for his performance against the Bruins. He went 18-of-22 (.818) for 232 yards and 1 TD with 0 INTs against Notre Dame. He also rushed for 35 yards on 9 carries with 3 TDs. He was named the Walter Camp National FBS Offensive Player of the Week, the Manning Award Star of the Week and the Rose Bowl Game Big Ten and Pac-12 Player of the Week for his performance against the Fighting Irish. He went 28-for-41 (.683) for 363 yards and 3 TDs with 1 INT in the Pac-12 Championships against Utah. He also rushed for 21 yards on 12 carries. He injured his hamstring in the beginning of the game. He went 37-of-52 (.716) for 462 yards and 5 TDs with 1 INT in the 2023 Cotton Bowl against Tulane. He also rushed for 10 yards on 4 carries. He set the Cotton Bowl record for most TD passes thrown in the game with 5 (previous record was 4 TDs held by Craig Erickson for Miami vs. Texas in 1991 and Graham Harrell for Texas Tech vs. Ole Miss in 2009). His 5 TD passes also tied the USC bowl game record for TD passes in a game. Williams tied Sam Darnold who threw for 5 TDs in the 2017 Rose Bowl. He also set the Cotton Bowl record for most passes competed with 37 (previous record was 36 held by Graham Harrell of Texas vs. Ole Miss in 2009 and Bryce Petty of Baylor vs. Michigan State in 2015).

OKLAHOMA: Williams, who enrolled at Oklahoma in the spring of 2021 after graduating a semester early from high school, emerged as the Sooners' starting quarterback by mid-season and proved to be one of the nation's premier freshmen in 2021. Overall in 2021 while appearing in 11 games (all but West Virginia and Nebraska) and starting the last 7 contests (TCU, Kansas, Texas Tech, Baylor, Iowa State, Oklahoma State, Oregon), he completed 136-of-211 passes (64.5%) for 1,912 yards and 21 TDs with 4 interceptions and he ran for 442 yards on 79 carries (5.6 avg) with 6 TDs. His 1,670 passing yards and 18 passing touchdowns were the most ever by an OU true freshman. He had 200-plus passing yards 5 times, 3-plus passing TDs 4 times and 2-plus passing TDs 6 times.

CALEB WILLIAMS

He was a 2021 True Freshman All-American by ESPN, 247Sports, On3 and Pro Football Focus. He also was a 2021 semifinalist for the Walter Camp Player of the Year, Davey O'Brien National Quarterback and FWAA's Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year awards. He made 2021 AP All-Big 12 second team and All-Big 12 honorable mention by the league's coaches.

He had a 1-yard scoring run versus Tulane, his only rush or pass in his collegiate debut. He completed 5-of-10 passes for 84 yards and rushed 4 times for 60 yards (including a 59-yard run) against Western Carolina. He completed his only pass attempt (18 yards) at Kansas State. USC HEAD COACH LINCOLN RILEY

Lincoln Riley is one of the nation's most successful coaches. In fact, he has had more success before the age of 40 than any other head coach in college football history. Lincoln Riley has been a head coach for 6 seasons and has developed 3 of the last 6 Heisman Trophy winners, all of whom are quarterbacks. Riley is also the only head coach to coach 3 Heisman winning quarterbacks. From coaching 3 Heisman Trophy winners, to having an 84 percent winning record, to appearing in 3 College Football Playoffs, Lincoln Riley's coaching achievements set a standard of excellence.

And didn't take long for Riley to implement that standard at USC. In his first season as USC's head coach in 2022, the 39-year-old led the Trojans to have equaled the biggest one-season victory turnaround (+7 victories) in USC history (USC's 1962 national champs won 11 games after winning just 4 in 1961). Last season, Troy won 4 games and in 2022, it had 11 victories. Riley tied the record for most victories by a first-year head coach (tied with John Robinson in 1976. This also ties the Pac-12 record). Riley's Trojans went 11-3 in 2022 to bring USC back to the top of the college football landscape. USC went undefeated in the Coliseum (7-0), doing so for the first time since 2017. Riley guided the Trojans to a Pac-12 Championship appearance and to a Cotton Bowl appearance. In Riley's electric offense, USC scored 579 points in 2022 compared to just 344 points scored in 2021. The Trojans finished the season nationally ranked No. 1 in turnover margin (1.57), No. 1 in turnovers lost (7), No. 1 in fumbles lost (2). No. 2 in 3rd down conversion percentage (0.536), No. 2 in passes had intercepted (5), No. 3 in first downs offense (359), No. 3 in passes intercepted (19), No. 3 in passing offense (335.4), No. 3 in scoring offense (41.4), No. 3 in team passing efficiency (169.20), No. 3 in total offense (506.6) and No. 5 in turnovers gained (29).

Riley's 2022 Trojans broke six USC records. The 2022 team now holds the USC record for most yards passing in a single season (4,696 yards in 14 games), most passes attempted in a single season (515), most touchdown passes in a single season (43), lowest percentage of passes had intercepted (0.97%, 5 in 515 attempts), most games scoring 30+ points (12) and most games scoring 40+ points (10). They also tie the USC single-game record for most touchdowns on interception returns (3 vs. Rice).

Under Riley's tutelage in 2022, quarterback Caleb Williams was named the 88th recipient of the Heisman Trophy. In addition to winning college football's most prestigious award, Williams also was named the 2022 Walter Camp Player of the Year, the 2022 AP Player of the Year, the 2022 Maxwell Award winner, the 2022 Sporting News College Football Player of the Year, the 2022 CBS Sports Player of the Year, the 2022 Action Sports Player of the Year, the 2022 CFPA National Performer of the Year and the 2022 Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year. Defensive lineman Tuli Tuipulotu was the Polynesian College Football Player of the Year, the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, the defensive Morris Trophy winner and was a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Rotary Lombardi Award, the Chuck Bednarik Award, the Ted Hendricks Award, and the Lott IMPACT Trophy. Both Tuipulotu and Williams were Unanimous First Team All-Americans, USC's first since 2012. Offensive linemen Brett Neilon and Andrew Vorhees and defensive back Calen Bullock were also named First Team All-Americans. Riley's 5 First Team All-Americans were the most in a single season since 2007 when USC also had 5 first teamers. Jordan Addison, Mekhi Blackmon, Tuli Tuipulotu, Andrew Vorhees, Caleb Williams were all selected to the All-Pac-12 First Team, and Vorhees was the offensive recipient of the Morris Trophy. Riley was a finalist for the 2022 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award. He threw out the first pitch at a Dodgers game in May of 2022.

Riley was hired by USC on Nov. 28, 2021. He arrived after serving as the head coach at Oklahoma, winning 85 percent of his games in five seasons there and led the Sooners to four Big 12 titles and four New Year's Six bowls with three College Football Playoff appearances.

Riley posted a 55-10 overall record in his five years (2017-21) at Oklahoma for an impressive .846 winning percentage. His Sooners were 37-7 (.841) in league play and won Big 12 championships in his first four years there as he became the first person to win outright Football Bowl Subdivision conference crowns in each of his first four seasons as a collegiate head coach. He set Oklahoma records for most victories in his first two (24), three (36) and four (45) seasons, breaking marks held by Barry Switzer and Bob Stoops.

After serving as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for two of the most prolific offenses in OU's history, Riley took over as the Sooners' head coach in 2017 when Stoops retired. He was the youngest FBS head coach (33) at the time of his hiring. He also coached the OU quarterbacks and called the offensive plays while serving as head coach, running a balanced offensive attack.

Riley led his initial Oklahoma squad to a 12-2 overall record in 2017, becoming just the fifth FBS coach with no previous head coaching experience at a four-year college to win at least 12 games in his debut season. The Sooners won the Big 12 title by going 8-1, played in the CFP semifinal in the Rose Bowl and finished third in the final AP poll. Quarterback Baker Mayfield won the Heisman Trophy that season, along with the Maxwell, Davey O'Brien, Manning, Walter Camp Player of the Year and AP Player of the Year Awards, and was the No. 1 pick of the 2018 NFL Draft. Tight end Mark Andrews won the 2017 Mackey Award.

Oklahoma was again 12-2 overall and 8-1 while winning the Big 12 championships in 2018 and 2019. He was the Big 12 Co-Coach of the Year in 2018. Quarterback Kyler Murray won the 2018 Heisman Trophy, O'Brien Award and Manning Award, was the AP Player of the Year and was the No. 1 selection in the 2020 NFL Draft, while quarterback Jalen Hurts was the Heisman runner-up in 2019. The Sooners appeared in the Orange Bowl in 2018 and Peach Bowl in 2019, both CFP semifinals. OU was fourth in the final AP poll in 2018 and seventh in 2019.

In the COVID-impacted 2020 season, Oklahoma went 9-2 overall, won the Big 12 at 6-2, beat Florida in the Cotton Bowl and was sixth in the final AP poll.

In 2021, the Sooners were 10-2 in the just-completed regular season, tied for second in the Big 12 standings at 7-2 and are ranked 13th by AP.

Riley spent 2015 and 2016 as Oklahoma's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He won the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach in 2015 when his offense ranked seventh nationally in total offense. In 2016, receiver Dede Westbrook won the Biletnikoff Award and was fourth in the Heisman voting, while running back Joe Mixon set the OU season all-purpose yardage record (2,331 yards) and fellow running back Samaje Perine set the school career rushing mark (4,122 yards).

Riley came to Oklahoma after five seasons (2010-14) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at East Carolina. He added the title of assistant head coach in 2014. The Pirates, running a spread offensive scheme, set more than 50 team and individual school offensive records during his time there. His squads had the top five passing seasons in school history and top four total offense marks. In 2014, ECU set a school season mark with 6,929 yards of total offense. East Carolina appeared in the national Top 10 in such categories as passing and scoring offense, third down conversion percentage and red zone scoring efficiency.

His Pirate wide receivers Justin Hardy and Zay Jones became the most productive pass catchers in FBS history. Hardy caught an NCAA record 387 career passes for 4,541 yards (including a trio of 1,000-yard seasons). Jones, who Riley coached for the first two years of his career, went on to break Hardy's mark with 399 career receptions.

East Carolina quarterback Dominique Davis was the 2010 Conference USA Newcomer of the Year and set school records for career completions and TD passes. He completed an NCAA record 36 consecutive passes in 2011. He was succeeded by Shane Carden, who broke many of Davis' record. Carden set ECU season marks for passing yards (4,736 in 2014) and completion percentage (.705 in 2013) and was the Conference USA MVP in 2013 followed by the American Conference's Offensive Player of the Year in 2014.

Riley was on the football and track teams at Muleshoe (Tex.) High, a West Texas town of 5,000. He was a walk-on quarterback at Texas Tech in the spring and summer of 2003 before starting his coaching career as a student assistant there under head coach Mike Leach for three seasons (2003-05), working with the offense.

He became an offensive graduate assistant at Texas Tech in 2006, then joined the Red Raiders' fulltime staff as the wide receivers coach in 2007 and the inside wide receivers coach in 2008 and 2009. In 2009, he called plays as the interim offensive coordinator in the Alamo Bowl, producing 579 yards of offense. His wide receiver Michael Crabtree won the 2007 Biletnikoff Award while establishing Big 12 and NCAA freshman records with 134 receptions for 1,962 yards, while fellow wideout Danny Amendola also had a 100-catch, 1,000-yard season in 2007. The Red Raiders played in a bowl in each of his seven seasons and Tech quarterbacks won NCAA passing titles in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2007.

Riley received his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science from Texas Tech in 2006.

He was born on Sept. 5, 1983, in Lubbock, Tex. He and his wife, Caitlin, have two daughters, Sloan and Stella. His younger brother, Garrett, is the offensive coordinator at Clemson after previously coaching at SMU, Appalachian State, Kansas, East Carolina and Augustana College and playing quarterback at Texas Tech and Stephen F. Austin.

USC ASSISTANT COACH BIOGRAPHIES

DENNIS SIMMONS
Assistant Head Coach,
Outside Wide Receivers
Offensive Passing Game Coordinator

Dennis Simmons, who has coached some of the collegiate game's elite receivers, enters his second season as the assistant head coach, outside wide receivers coach and offensive passing game coordinator.

Simmons, 48, coached a standout group of outside receivers who contributed to a recorded-setting season for the Trojan offense. He tutored All-Pac-12 First Team member Jordan Addison (59 catches for 875 yards and 8 TDs).

He spent the previous 7 seasons (2015-21) at Oklahoma as the outside receivers coach. He added the associate head coach title in 2019 and 2020 and the assistant head coach and passing game coordinator roles in 2021. He was named one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals in 2019. He coached a trio of All-American first team wide receivers at Oklahoma: 2016 Biletnikoff Award winner, Heisman Trophy finalist and unanimous All-American Dede Westbrook (81 catches for 1,524 yards and 17 TDs), Marquise Brown in 2018 (1,318 receiving yards and 10 TDs) and 2019 Biletnikoff finalist and consensus All-American CeeDee Lamb (62 catches for 1,327 yards with 14 TDs). During his tenure, Oklahoma played in the 2015 Orange Bowl (College Football Playoff semifinal), 2017 Sugar Bowl, 2018 Rose Bowl (CFP semifinal), 2018 Orange Bowl (CFP semifinal), 2019 Peach Bowl (CFP semifinal), 2020 Cotton Bowl and 2021 Alamo Bowl.

He was the outside receivers coach at Washington State for 3 years (2012-14). The Cougars led the nation in passing offense (477.7) in 2014, throwing for a Pac-12 record 5,732 yards, and were seventh in total offense and ninth in completion percentage when wideout Vince Mayle tied for fourth nationally in receptions (106) and was fifth in receiving yards (1,483). In 2013, WSU was fourth in the nation in passing offence (368.0) and set a Pac-12 record with 470 completions while playing in the New Mexico Bowl.

He spent 2010 and 2011 as East Carolina's outside receivers coach. Wide receiver Lance Lewis was an All-Conference USA pick in 2010 (89 catches for 1,116 yards with 14 TDs), just the third Pirate ever with a 1,000-yard receiving season. ECU played in the 2010 Military Bowl.

He was Texas Tech's outside receivers coach for 2 years (2008-09). In 2008, wide receiver Michael Crabtree repeated as the Biletnikoff winner and consensus All-American (97 receptions, 1,165 yards, 19 TDs). In 2009, wideout Alex Torres was a Freshman All-American. The Red Raiders played in the 2008 Cotton Bowl and 2010 Alamo Bowl.

Simmons spent 2000 to 2007 in non-coaching roles at Texas Tech. He first was an assistant athletic director/quality control for the football program, then served as the chief of staff for head coach Mike Leach for 3 years (2005-07).

He coached running backs at Cornell in 1999, where also held was an assistant athletics director and chief of staff. He served as an NFL Minority Fellowship intern with the Buffalo Bills in the summer of 1999.

He began his coaching career at BYU, his alma mater, where he worked with the offensive line and special teams in 1997.

He played outside linebacker at BYU (1993-96), where he started the final 3 years. The Cougars won 4 Western Athletic Conference titles and played in the Cotton, Copper, Holiday and Aloha Bowls.

He earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications in 1996 and a master's degree in educational leadership in 1999, both from BYU.

He prepped at Kirby High in Memphis (Tenn.).

He was born on September 8, 1973. He and his wife, LaTosha, have a daughter, Kendyll, and son, Kannon.

ALEX GRINCH
Defensive Coordinator
Safeties

Alex Grinch, regarded as one of the nation's top defensive coordinators and secondary coaches, enters his second season as USC's defensive coordinator and safeties coach. Grinch is a four-time nominee and two-time semifinalist for the Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach.

In his first season at USC in 2022, the Trojans led the nation in turnover margin (1.57). This was quite an improvement from 2021 when the Trojans were ranked No. 74 in the nation in the same category (-0.08). The turnover battle was a major focus for the Trojans as they ranked No. 3 in the nation with 19 passes intercepted by 11 different players. USC ranked No. 5 in the nation in turnovers gained with 29. Sophomore defensive back Calen Bullock was named a First Team All-American. Bullock's team leading 5 interceptions were the most in a single season since Adoree' Jackson also had 5 in 2016.

Grinch, 41, spent the previous 3 seasons (2019-21) at Oklahoma as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach. The Sooners ranked 24th nationally in rushing defense in 2021 (123.8) and advanced to the Alamo Bowl. In 2020 while winning the Big 12 title and playing in the Cotton Bowl, OU was third nationally in interceptions (16), fourth in opponent third-down conversion percentage (27.9), seventh in sacks (3.4) and ninth in both pass efficiency defense (112.9) and rushing defense (105.1) while allowing just 21.7 points per game. Oklahoma was 17th in the nation in opponent third-down conversion percentage (32.2) in 2019 when he was a Broyles Award semifinalist and OU won the Big 12 crown and played in a College Football Playoff semifinal in the Peach Bowl. Five Sooners were NFL Draft picks during his tenure: linebacker Kenneth Murray (first round) and defensive lineman Neville Gallimore (third round) in 2020 and defensive end Ronnie Perkins (third round), cornerback Tre Brown (fourth round) and defensive back Tre Norwood (seventh round) in 2021.

Grinch spent 2018 as Ohio State's co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach as the Buckeyes won the Big Ten and Rose Bowl.

He was Washington State's defensive coordinator and secondary coach for 3 seasons (2015-17). The 2017 Cougars were 16th nationally in total defense (323.3) and ninth in both passing defense (170.9) and turnovers gained (28) as he was a Broyles Award semifinalist. WSU played in the 2015 Sun Bowl and 2016 and 2017 Holiday Bowls.

Grinch was the safeties coach at Missouri for 3 seasons (2012-14). The Tigers captured the SEC East Division titles in 2013 and 2014 and won the Cotton Bowl in 2013 and Citrus Bowl in 2014.

Before that, he was the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Wyoming for 3 seasons (2009-11). Two of his safeties—Chris Prosinski and Tashaun Gipson—played in the NFL. The Cowboys played in the New Mexico Bowls in the 2009 and 2011 seasons.

His first fulltime coaching assignment was at New Hampshire, where he was the cornerbacks coach for 2 years (2005-06) and then the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator for another 2 seasons (2007-08). Cornerback Corey Graham was drafted in the NFL's fifth round and played in the NFL. The Wildcats played in the FCS playoffs each season, including advancing to the quarterfinals 3 times (2005-06-08).

He served as an administrative graduate assistant at Missouri in 2002, then was a defensive graduate assistant coach in 2003 and 2004. The Tigers played in the 2003 Independence Bowl.

Grinch was a safety at Mount Union (1998-2001) as the Purple Raiders went 54-1, won three NCAA Division III championships (1998-2000-01) and four Ohio Athletic Conference titles. He eared All-American third team and Academic All-League first team honors as a 2001 senior.

Grinch received his bachelor's degree in sports management from Mount Union in 2002. He earned a master's degree in educational leadership from Missouri in 2004.

Grinch was born on May 29, 1980. He and his wife, Rebecca, have a son, Tyler, and daughter, Corbi. His uncle is Gary Pinkel, who was the head football coach at Toledo (1991-2000) and Missouri (2001-15).

JOSH HENSON
Offensive Coordinator
Offensive Line

Josh Henson, who has 23 years of coaching experience primarily in the SEC and Big 12 and has been part of a national championship staff, enters his second season as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

Henson, 46, led one of the best offensive line units in the nation. The elite Trojan offensive line was a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award. Their contribution was instrumental to quarterback Caleb Williams winning the Heisman Trophy and having his record-breaking season. Linemen Andrew Vorehees and Brett Neilon were both named First Team All-Americans, while Vorhees was the offensive recipient of the Morris Trophy and was selected to the All-Pac-12 First Team.

He spent the past 3 seasons (2019-21) as the offensive line coach at Texas A&M. Guard Kenyon Green was a two-time All-American first teamer (2020-2021), center Bryce Foster and offensive tackle Reuben Fatheree II made Freshman All-American first team and A&M was 22nd nationally in tackles for loss allowed. In 2020, when the offensive line was a finalist for the Joe Moore Award, the Aggies ranked in the Top 5 nationally in sacks allowed and TFL allowed and were the first team in 10 years to lead the SEC in sacks allowed, tackles for loss allowed and yards per carry. A&M earned berths in the 2019 Texas Bowl, 2021 Orange Bowl and 2021 Gator Bowl.

Before that, Henson spent 3 seasons (2016-18) at Oklahoma State, his alma mater. He spent 2016 as an offensive analyst, then coached the offensive line in 2017 and 2018. The 2017 Cowboys led the nation in passing offense, ranked second in total offense and first downs, third in pass efficiency and fourth in scoring offense while becoming the first offense in Big 12 history with a 4,000-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher. In 2018, OSU ranked in the national Top 15 in scoring offense, total offense, passing offense and first downs. The Cowboys played in the 2016 Alamo Bowl, 2017 Camping World Bowl and 2018 Liberty Bowl

He spent 7 years (2009-15) at Missouri, the first 4 (2009-12) as the co-offensive line coach and the last 3 (2013-15) as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. Four of his offensive linemen were NFL draftees. The Tigers won back-to-back SEC East titles in 2013 and 2014. Missouri appeared in 5 bowls during his time: the 2009 Texas Bowl, 2010 Insight Bowl, 2011 Independence Bowl, 2014 Cotton Bowl and 2015 Citrus Bowl.

He was LSU's tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator for 4 seasons (2005-08), including with the Tigers' 2007 national championship squad. He helped assemble Top 10 recruiting classes in 2006 and 2007 when he was named one of college football's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com. LSU played in the 2005 Peach Bowl, 2007 Sugar Bowl, 2008 BCS National Championship Game and 2008 Chick-Fil-A Bowl.

He served as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma State in 1999, then was the Cowboys' tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator for 4 years (2001-04). Oklahoma State was in the 2002 Houston Bowl, 2004 Cotton Bowl and 2004 Alamo Bowl.

He got his coaching start as an assistant at Kingfisher (Okla.) High in 1998, helping the team to the state semifinals.

He started 37 games on the offensive line at Oklahoma State during his career (1993-97), earning All-Big 12 second team honors as a 1997 senior.

He received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from Oklahoma State in 1998.

He prepped at Tuttle (Okla.) High.

He was born on July 14, 1975. He and his wife, Shauna, have a daughter, Kate, and son Will.

DONTE WILLIAMS
Defensive Backs
Defensive Passing Game Coordinator

Donte Williams who has more than a dozen years of experience coaching defensive backs and is regarded as one of the nation's top recruiters, enters his second season as defensive backs coach and defensive passing game coordinator on Lincoln Riley's staff after serving as the Trojans' interim head coach in 2021.

He coached a group of outside linebackers who made massive contributions to the Trojan defense throughout the 2022 season. He tutored Mekhi Blackmon, an All-Pac-12 First Team member who recorded 66 tackles (fourth on the team), including 2.0 for loss of 7 yards. He led the team with 12 pass breakups and decorated his stat sheet with 3 interceptions, 1 fumble recovery and 1 forced fumble.

He was named USC's cornerbacks coach and defensive pass game coordinator in February of 2020. In December of 2020, he added the title of associate head coach. Then, on Sept. 13, 2021, he was named USC's interim head coach after head coach Clay Helton was relieved of his duties. He had a 3-7 overall record as interim head coach. Cornerback Chris Steele made All-Pac-12 honorable mention in 2021.

In 2020, Steele made All-Pac-12 second team, while cornerback Olaijah Griffin was ranked the Pac-12's No. 3 cornerback by Pro Football Focus. USC's pass defense allowed just 216.3 yards, its fewest since 2013. Williams was named the nation's third best recruiter (No. 1 in the Pac-12 for the second consecutive year) by 247Sports.

Williams spent the previous 2 seasons (2018-19) as Oregon's cornerbacks coach. The Ducks were second in the nation in interceptions in 2019 (with 20) and 11th in 2018 (17). Oregon played in the 2018 Redbox Bowl and then won the 2019 Pac-12 championship and played in the Rose Bowl. He was named the nation's seventh best recruiter (No. 1 in the Pac-12) for the class of 2020 by 247Sports.

In 2017, he coached Nebraska's cornerbacks, nickelbacks and dimebacks as well as helping with the Cornhuskers' pass defense coordination.

Williams, 39, was the cornerbacks coach at Arizona in 2016.

Prior to that, he spent 3 seasons (2013-15) at San Jose State, coaching the cornerbacks the first season and serving as the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator the final 2 seasons. In 2014, the Spartans' pass defense (117.8) and passing touchdowns allowed (6) were tops in the nation, improving 85 and 102 spots, respectively, in the national rankings from the previous year. Then in 2015, as SJSU played in the Cure Bowl, the Spartans were second nationally in pass defense (157.8) and 29th in passing TDs allowed (16). He also was named a Top 10 national recruiter by Sports Illustrated in 2015 after being selected as the Mountain West's best recruiter in 2014 by 247Sports.

He was a graduate assistant at Washington in 2011 and 2012, working with the cornerbacks and linebackers. The Huskies played in the 2011 Alamo Bowl and 2012 Las Vegas Bowl. In the summer of 2012, he was a summer coaching intern with the NFL's Seattle Seahawks.

He spent 2010 as a quality control coach at Nevada, helping with the linebackers. The Wolfpack played in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl that season.

He began his coaching career as a cornerbacks coach at the junior college level, first at Los Angeles Harbor College in 2007, then El Camino College in 2008 and Mt. San Antonio College in 2009.

He played football at Culver City (Calif.) High.

He then played defensive back at Pasadena (Calif.) City College in 2002, Syracuse in 2003 and Idaho State in 2004 and 2005. He was an All-Big Sky first teamer and team captain both seasons at Idaho State.

He received his bachelor's degree in communication from Idaho State in 2006.

He then played 2 seasons in the Arena Football League 2, for the Rio Grande Valley Dorados (2007) and Arkansas Twisters (2008).

He was born on Sept. 1, 1982. His wife's name is Jayna. He has a son, King. His cousins are former USC defensive backs Kris Richard (1998-2001), who played with the NFL's Seattle Seahawks (2002-04) and San Francisco 49ers (2005) and then coached with USC, Seahawks, Dallas Cowboys and New Orleans Saints, and Darnell Lacy (1996-98).

ROY MANNING
Outside Linebackers
Nickels
Assistant Head Coach for Defense

Roy Manning, a former Big Ten and NFL linebacker who has coached in three Power 5 conference, enters his second season as the outside linebackers coach, nickels coach and assistant head coach for defense.

Manning, 41, coached a group of outside linebackers who made massive contributions to the Trojan defense throughout the 2022 season. Sophomore Korey Foreman sealed the 48-45 win against UCLA with a critical interception at the end of the game.

He spent the past 3 seasons as Oklahoma's cornerbacks coach. In 2020, OU was third nationally in interceptions (16) and ninth in pass efficiency defense (112.9). The Sooner defense only gave up 12 passing TD's in 11 games, the fewest in the country by teams that played 9 or more games. Cornerback Tre Brown was an NFL Draft fourth round pick in 2021 and cornerback Parnell Motley was an All-Big 12 first team selection in 2019. The Sooners played in the 2021 Alamo Bowl, won the Big 12 crown and played the Cotton Bowl in 2020 and won the Big 12 title and played in a College Football semifinal in the Peach Bowl in 2019.

He was UCLA's outside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator in 2018. The Bruins special teams improved from 65th to 20th in the college football S&P+ rankings.

He coached outside linebackers at Washington State from 2015 to 2017. In 2017, the Cougars ranked 16th nationally in total defense (323.3), ninth in passing defense (170.9) and ninth in turnovers gained (28) while allowing only 11 touchdown passes and posting 103 tackles for loss. In 2016, WSU's outside linebackers combined for 16 tackles for loss, 5.5 sacks and six turnovers, while they combined for 26.5 tackles for loss, 12 sacks and 146 tackles in 2015. The Cougars played in the 2015 Sun Bowl and 2016 and 2017 Holiday Bowls.

He served the previous 2 seasons (2013-14) at Michigan, coaching outside linebackers in 2013 and cornerbacks in 2014. Wolverine linebackers Cam Gordon and Jake Ryan combined for 70 tackles, 13 tackles for loss and 5 sacks in 2013 while defensive back Raymon Taylor earned All-Big Ten honors in 2014. Michigan played in the 2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl. From 2011-14, the Michigan defense ranked among the top 20 nationally in 3 of the 4 seasons in total defense, pass defense and scoring defenses. Manning helped turn around this unit that in 2010 ranked 110th in total defense, 112th in passing defense and 108th in scoring defense.

He was the running backs coach at Cincinnati in 2012, helping the Bearcats lead the Big East in rushing with 201.5 yards per game. Running back George Winn had the second-best rushing season in school history with 1,334 yards (102.6 per game) and 13 touchdowns, both conference bests. Cincinnati played in the 2012 Belk Bowl.

In 2011, he was an offensive graduate assistant at Michigan, where he worked with the offensive line. The Wolverines played in the Sugar Bowl.

His first coaching experience came in 2010 at Cincinnati, where he worked as a defensive assistant.

Manning was a linebacker at Michigan (2001-04), appearing in 37 games in his career (including 10 starts as a 2004 redshirt senior). He had 72 tackles, including 9 for losses (with 3 sacks) in his career.

He earned his bachelor's degree in general studies from Michigan in 2004.

He then played 3 years in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers (2005) Houston Texans (2006), Buffalo Bills (2006), Jacksonville Jaguars (2007) and Cincinnati Bengals (2007).

Manning starred in 4 sports (football, basketball, baseball and track) at Saginaw (Mich.) High. He was inducted into the Saginaw Sports Hall of Fame in 2020.

He was born on Dec. 4, 1981 in Saginaw, Mich. He has a son, Malakai, and daughter, Olivia.

BRIAN ODOM
Inside Linebackers
Associate Head Coach for Defense

Brian Odom, who has a dual background in coaching linebackers and sports performance, enters his second season as the inside linebackers coach and associate head coach for defense.

Odom, 40, coached a group of inside linebackers who made massive contributions to the Trojan defense throughout the 2022 season. Shane Lee and Eric Gentry were the second and third leading tacklers, with Lee recording 78 and Gentry collecting 71.

He spent the previous 3 years (2019-21) as the inside linebackers coach at Oklahoma. The Sooners ranked 24thnationally in rushing defense in 2021 (123.8) and advanced to the Alamo Bowl. In 2020 while winning the Big 12 title and playing in the Cotton Bowl, OU was fourth in the nation in opponent third-down conversion percentage (27.9), seventh in sacks (3.4) and ninth in both pass efficiency defense (112.9) and rushing defense (105.1) while allowing just 21.7 points per game. Oklahoma was 17th in the nation in opponent third-down conversion percentage (32.2) in 2019 when OU won the Big 12 crown and played in a College Football Playoff semifinal in the Peach Bowl. Linebacker Kenneth Murray was an All-Big 12 first team selection in 2019 and an NFL first round pick in 2020.

He was the outside linebackers coach at Missouri in 2017 and 2018. The Tigers were 22nd nationally in rushing defense (122.9) in 2017. Linebacker Terez Hall played in the NFL. Missouri played in the 2017 Texas Bowl and 2018 Liberty Bowl.

He was a defensive quality control assistant at Washington State for the 2015 and 2016 seasons. The Cougars played in the 2015 Sun Bowl and 2016 Holiday Bowl.

Odom spent 3 years (2012-14) as the co-director of sports performance for Houston's football program. The Cougars were in the 2014 BBVA Compass Bowl and 2015 Armed Forces Bowl.

He spent 7 years (2005-11) working with the football performance program at Arizona, the first 2 as assistant director of performance enhancement and the last 5 as associate director of performance enhancement. Additionally, for 5 seasons (2006-10) he assisted Arizona's football operations director by coordinating advance travel arrangements for all away games. The Wildcats played in the 2008 Las Vegas Bowl, 2009 Holiday Bowl and 2010 Alamo Bowl.

He began his career in athletics as an administrative and defensive graduate assistant at Missouri for the first half of 2005. The Tigers played in the Independence Bowl.

He attended Oklahoma for 2 seasons (2000-01), redshirting as a running back on the Sooners' 2000 national championship team (he won the team's Iron Man Award that season for his performance in the weight room) and then lettering in 2001 while playing primarily on special teams.

He then transferred to Southeastern Oklahoma State, where he was a 3-year (2002-04) starting tailback. He earned All-Lone Star Conference first team honors as a senior in 2004.

He earned his bachelor's degree from Southeastern Oklahoma State in 2004.

He was Oklahoma's High School Player of the Year in 1999 as a running back at Ada (Okla.) High.

He was born July 2, 1981. He and his wife, Mackenzie, have 2 sons, Benjamin and Brock. His older brother, Barry, was the head football coach at Missouri (2016-19) and now is Arkansas' defensive coordinator.

SHAUN NUA
Defensive Line

Shaun Nua, a former NFL Super Bowl-winning defensive end who has coaching experience in the Pac-12 and Big Ten, enters his second season as defensive line coach.

Nua, 40, was a semifinalist for the Broyles Award. He coached Tuli Tuipulotu, one of the top defenders in the nation in 2022. Tuipulotu was the Polynesian College Football Player of the Year, the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, the defensive Morris Trophy winner and was a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Rotary Lombardi Award, the Chuck Bednarik Award, the Ted Hendricks Award, and the Lott IMPACT Trophy. Tuipulotu was also a Unanimous First Team All-American being selected to the First Team for AP, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp and Sporting News. He led the nation in sacks with 13.5 and was second in the nation in tackles for loss with 22.0.

He spent the past 3 seasons (2019-21) as Michigan's defensive line coach. Defensive end Kwity Paye was a first round selection in the 2021 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts. In 2021, defensive end Aidan Hutchinson was a consensus All-American first teamer, Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and Academic All-American first teamer when he won the Lombardi Award, Hendricks Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy. Michigan was 21st nationally in sacks (2.77) in 2019 and held 7 teams under 100 rushing yards. UM defensive linemen posted 23 tackles for loss and 15.5 sacks in 2019 and followed that with 13.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks during the COVID-shortened 2020 season. The Wolverines played in the 2020 Citrus Bowl and 2021 CFP semifinals in the Orange Bowl.

He was the defensive line coach at Arizona State in 2018. Defensive lineman Russell Wren was a fourth round pick in the 2019 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. The Sun Devils played in the 2018 Las Vegas Bowl.

He spent 6 seasons (2012-17) as the defensive line coach at the U.S. Naval Academy. Defensive end Will Anthony was All-American Athletic Conference first team in 2015. The Midshipmen won a school-record 11 games, finished 18th in both polls and shared the AAC West Division title in 2015, their first season in the AAC. In 2016, Navy played in the AAC Championship Game. During his tenure, Navy beat Army 4 times, won 3 Commander-In-Chief's Trophies and played in a bowl each season (2012 Fight Hunger Bowl, 2013 Armed Forces Bowl, 2014 Poinsettia Bowl, 2015 Military Bowl, 2016 Armed Forces Bowl and 2017 Military Bowl).

He began his coaching career at BYU, his alma mater, serving as an intern in 2009 and then a graduate assistant coach working with the defense. BYU was 24th nationally in total defense in 2010 and 13th in 2011. The Cougars appeared in the 2009 Las Vegas Bowl, 2010 New Mexico Bowl and 2011 Armed Forces Bowl.

He played 4 seasons (2005-08) in the NFL, the first 3 with the Pittsburgh Steelers and 2008 with the Buffalo Bills. He was a member of the Steelers' Super Bowl XL-winning team in 2006.

He was a defensive end at BYU for 3 seasons (2002-04), earning All-Mountain West second team honors in 2004.

He earned his bachelor's degree in youth and family recreation in 2005 and a master's degree in recreation management in 2013, both from BYU.

He was a Junior College All-American at Eastern Arizona Junior College before transferring to BYU.

He attended Tafuna High in American Samoa.

He was born on May 22, 1991. He and his wife, Hilary, have 3 children: Losi, Kelina and Malia. He is the son of Sao and Usu Nua. His cousin, Ianeta Le'i, played softball (first base) for 4 seasons (2003-06) at BYU, where she was a 3-time All-American and then served as an assistant coach (2007-13). His cousin, Devin Tavana, was an offensive lineman at Southern Utah (2010-11).

KIEL McDONALD
Running Backs

Kiel McDonald, who has tutored some of the Pac-12's top running backs in recent years, enters his second season as the running backs coach.

McDonald coached Travis Dye, an All-Pac-12 Second Team selection, who would have earned first team honors had his season not ended prematurely due to injury. Dye, a physical and emotional leader for the trojans, rushed for 844 yards on 145 carries, averaging 6.1 yards per carry, with 9 touchdowns.

He spent the previous 5 seasons (2017-21) as Utah's running backs coach. During his time, Utah led the Pac-12 in rushing in 2021 with All-Pac-12 first teamer Tavion Thomas eclipsing the 1,000-yard rushing barrier (he set Utah's single-season rushing TD record with 21) and in 2019 as All-American first teamer and Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year Zack Moss achieved his third consecutive 1,000-yard season and became the program's all-time leading rusher (he set or tied 8 school records). The late Ty Jordan was a Freshman All-American, AP Pac-12 Newcomer of the Year and the Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year in 2020 while averaging 119.4 rushing yards (tops among FBS freshmen). The Utes won the Pac-12 South Division title in 2018-19-21 and were Pac-12 champs in 2021. They played in the 2017 Heart of Dallas Bowl, 2018 Holiday Bowl, 2019 Alamo Bowl and 2022 Rose Bowl.

Before coming to Utah, the 38-year-old McDonald spent 5 years as the running backs coach at Eastern Washington (2012-16), where he was also the co-special teams' coordinator. Inheriting a run game that averaged just 79.0 yards in 2011, he helped the rushing attack improve to 183.7 yards per game by his second season. The Eagles made the FCS playoffs 4 times during his time there, advancing to the national semifinals in 2012, 2013 and 2016 and to the quarterfinals in 2014.

McDonald was a graduate assistant offensive quality control coach at Arizona State in 2011, as the Sun Devils played in the Las Vegas Bowl.

He spent 2010 as the defensive backs and strength coach at San Jose City College in 2010. He also interned with the San Francisco 49ers in 2010, helping with the secondary.

He also coached at Gunderson High in San Jose (Calif.) and was a strength coach at Marshall Performance and Fitness in San Jose.

He was a cornerback at Sacramento City College in 2002 and 2003, earning All-NorCal Conference honorable mention as a sophomore. He played 2 games at Arizona in 2004 before an injury ended his season. He transferred to Sacramento State for the 2005 season, where he won Big Sky All-Academic honors, and then to Idaho in 2006, where he had 31 tackles, 5 pass breakups and an interception in 2006.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business communication from Sacramento State in 2006.

He prepped at Thomas B. Doherty High in Colorado Spring (Colo.), where he lettered in football, hockey, baseball and track.

He is from Milpitas, Calif. and was born on April 22, 1983. His first name is pronounced Kyle.

ZACH HANSON
Tight Ends

Zach Hanson, regarded as one of the game's top young coaches, enters his second season as USC's tight ends coach.

Hanson, 33, led a group of tight ends who contributed to a recorded-setting season for the Trojan offense.

He spent 2 seasons (2020-21) as the offensive line coach at Tulsa. He coached Tyler Smith, who was a Freshman All-American and an All-American Athletic Conference first team pick in 2020. Offensive tackle Chris Paul has received an invitation to the 2022 NFL Combine and the 2022 Senior Bowl. In his two seasons at Tulsa, Hanson had 7 offensive linemen earn All-American Athletic Conference honors. The Golden Hurricane played in the 2020 Armed Forces Bowl and 2021 Myrtle Beach Bowl. Tulsa also played in the 2020 American Athletic Conference championship against Cincinnati.

He was a senior offensive analyst at Oklahoma in 2019 when the Sooners played in the College Football Playoff semifinal in the Peach Bowl.

In 2018, he was the tight ends coach and assistant offensive line coach at Kansas State, his alma mater.

He spent 2016 and 2017 at North Carolina as a graduate assistant for special teams. The Tar Heels led the nation in punt return defense (0.2) and were second in kickoff returns (26.97) in 2016. Punter Tom Sheldon was a Freshman All-American in 2017. North Carolina was in the 2016 Sun Bowl.

He began his coaching career at Kansas State for 4 seasons (2012-15), serving as an offensive quality control coach in 2012 and then the final 3 years as an offensive graduate assistant. He worked with the offensive line during his first 3 years there and with the wide receivers in 2015. The Wildcats, who won the Big 12 Championship in 2012, played in the 2013 Fiesta Bowl, 2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl, 2015 Alamo Bowl and 2016 Liberty Bowl.

Hanson was an offensive tackle at Kansas State (2008-11), earning 2011 All-Big 12 first team and Academic All-Big 12 second team accolades. He appeared in 37 games in his career, including starting at left tackle in 2011 when the Wildcats went 10-3 and appeared in the Cotton Bowl. Kansas State also played in the 2010 Pinstripe Bowl.

He originally signed with Nevada out of high school but opted to attend Sacramento City College prior to going to Kansas State.

He earned a bachelor's degree in social sciences in 2010 and his master's degree in sociology in 2014, both from Kansas State.

He prepped at Linden (Calif.) High.

He was born on Feb. 13, 1988. His wife, Annie, is USC's executive director of football recruiting.

LUKE HUARD
Inside Wide Receivers

Luke Huard, who comes from a family of outstanding quarterbacks, joined the USC staff in February of 2022 as an offensive analyst. In March, he took over as interim inside wide receivers coach while Dave Nichol was away from the program due to his health. He became the full time position coach in the spring of 2022.

Huard, 42, coached a group of high-level inside receivers who contributed to a recorded-setting season for the Trojan offense.

He spent the previous 3 seasons (2019-21) as an offensive analyst at Texas A&M. The Aggies earned berths in the 2019 Texas Bowl, 2021 Orange Bowl and 2021 Gator Bowl.

Before that, he was the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Sacramento State for 2 seasons (2017-18). The Hornets averaged 486.0 total yards and 37.6 points (fifth nationally) in 2017 as quarterback Kevin Thomson set several school season records, and then averaged 402.8 total yards in 2018.

He was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Georgia State for 4 seasons (2013-16). GSU quarterbacks Ronnie Bell and Nick Arbuckle set numerous school records, including Arbuckle's Sun Belt records in 2015 for passing yards (4,368) and total offense (4,273). Arbuckle, who ranked sixth nationally in passing yards per game in 2015, was the Sun Belt's Student-Athlete of the Year that season. Nine Georgia State pass catchers earned All-Sun Belt honors during Huard's tenure. The Panthers played in the 2015 and 2017 Cure Bowl.

He was at Illinois State for 4 seasons (2009-12), the first as the quarterbacks coach and then adding the offensive coordinator duties the next 3 years. In 2012, the Redbirds led the Missouri Valley Football Conference in passing and total offense while scoring more than 30 points per game, and they advanced to the quarterfinals of the FCS playoffs. Quarterback Matt Brown was a 3-time All-Conference selection, and was the 2009 MVFC Newcomer of the Year and 2012 MVFC Offensive Player of the Year.

Huard was a graduate assistant at Washington in 2007 and 2008, working with the quarterbacks. Quarterback Jake Locker was the Pac-10 Newcomer of the Year in 2007 (he went on to be an NFL first round pick).

Huard started his coaching career in 2002 as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Washington High in Tacoma (Wash.).

He then spent 4 years (2003-06) as the head coach at Interlake High in Bellevue (Wash.). In 2004, he led the team to its first winning season in 10 years. That same year, he also was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Eastside Hawks, a semi-pro team that went 10-0 in 2004 and won the Northwest Football League title.

After being named Washington's 1997 Gatorade Player of the Year as a quarterback at Puyallup High, he played at North Carolina for 3 seasons (1998-2000) before a shoulder injury ended his career. He started 4 games as a redshirt freshman in 1999.
He received his bachelor's degree in political science from North Carolina in 2002.
His brothers, Damon and Brock, were quarterbacks at Washington and in the NFL. Damon played at Washington (1991-95), including on UW's 1991 national champions, and then with the Miami Dolphins (1997-2000), New England Patriots (2001-2003, including on the Super Bowl XXXVI and XXXVIII champs), and Kansas City Chiefs (2004-08), and now is director of community and external relations and special advisor to the athletic director at Washington as well as an analyst on Husky football radio broadcasts. Brock played at Washington (1995-98), then with the Seattle Seahawks (1999-2001, 2004) and Indianapolis Colts (2002-03) and now is a college football analyst for FOX Sports and a sports radio host in Seattle. His father, Mike, was inducted into the Washington State Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 1998 and the Pacific Northwest Football Hall of Fame in 2011 after 17 seasons as the head coach at Puyallup High, winning the state title in 1987. His nephew, Sam, is a redshirt freshman quarterback at Washington, while his niece, Haley, is a freshman guard on Montana's basketball team. His sister-in-law, Molly, played basketball at Washington (1995-99).
He was born on Oct. 1, 1979. He and his wife, Dolly, have 2 daughters.

BENNIE WYLIE
Director of Football Sports Performance

Bennie Wylie, one of the top strength and conditioning coaches in the country, joined the USC staff as the director of football sports performance in December of 2021.

Wylie, 45, spent the previous 4 years (2018-21) as Oklahoma's director of sports performance for football. The Sooners won the Big 12 title in 2018, 2019 and 2020, made a pair of College Football Playoff semifinal appearances in 2018 and 2019 (in the Orange and Peach Bowls, respectively) and also played in the Cotton Bowl in the 2020 season and the Alamo Bowl in 2021.

Prior to arriving at OU, he served as director of performance at The Performance Lab, a private group-training strength and fitness center in Abilene, Tex. He also provided training and obstacle fitness to United States military personnel as a staff member of Alpha Warrior.

He spent 3 years (2011-13) as strength and conditioning head coach for football at Texas. The Longhorns appeared in the 2011 Holiday Bowl and 2012 and 2013 Alamo Bowl.

He spent the 2010 season at Tennessee as strength and conditioning head coach for football. The Volunteers participated in the Music City Bowl.

He served 7 seasons (2003-09) as head strength and conditioning coach at Texas Tech. The Red Raiders competed in bowl games in each season: 2003 Houston Bowl, 2004 Holiday Bowl, 2006 Cotton Bowl, 2006 Insight Bowl, 2008 Gator Bowl, 2009 Cotton Bowl and 2010 Alamo Bowl.

He was an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Dallas Cowboys from 1999 to 2002, helping rehabilitate injured players. He also spent the spring seasons heading the strength and conditioning program for the Dallas Desperados of the Arena Football League.

He got his start in strength and conditioning as a graduate assistant at Sam Houston State in 1998 and was named the Bearkats' interim head strength and conditioning coach that same year.

He is certified by the Titleist Performance Institute and USA Weightlifting and was named a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association in 2012.

He was a 4-year (1994-97) letterwinning running back at Sam Houston State, serving as the team captain in 1997 while earning All-Southland Conference second team honors. He also was on the Bearkats' track and field team.

He earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Sam Houston State in 1999.

He prepped at Mexia (Tex.) High.

He was born on July 11, 1976. He and his wife, Jennifer, have twin sons, Braden and Caden, and a daughter, Hope.

2022 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 – September 3, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 66, Rice 14
Att: 60,113

Rice	7	7	0	0	--	14
USC	7	24	28	7	--	66

QB Caleb Williams went 19-of-22 for 249 yards and 2 TDs to lead the Trojans to a 66-14 victory over the Rice Owls to usher in the Lincoln Riley Era on Labor Day Weekend in front of 60,113 fans in the Coliseum and a national Pac-12 Network audience.

It was USC's 15th consecutive season opening victory in the Coliseum. The 52-point margin of victory was USC's largest in any game since defeating San Jose State by 53 points on Sept. 5, 2009 in the season opener that season (56-3). USC's 66 points were the most its scored in a game since winning at Washington State 69-0 on Oct. 18, 2008. The last time USC scored 66 points or more in a home game was when it won 66-19 vs. UCLA on Dec. 3, 2005. The 66 points are the most scored by USC in a home opener since scoring 70 vs. Arkansas on Sept. 17, 2005 (second game of the season).

USC generated 538 yards of total offense with Williams at the helm. His 86.3 completion percentage was the best by a Trojan quarterback with a minimum of 20 attempts since Matt Barkley had a 95.0 completion percentage vs. Colorado on Oct. 20, 2012. He also led the team in rushing with 68 yards on 6 carries. RBs Austin Jones (48 yards on 4 carries), Raleek Brown (36 yards on 6 carries), Travis Dye (20 yards on 5 carries) and Darwin Barlow (16 yards on 5 carries) combined for 120 rushing yards. The offense converted 5-of-7 third down chances and had 37 first downs.

The Trojan defense lit up the Coliseum with 4 interceptions, 3 of which were returned for TDs. That tied the school single game record of three, which was also accomplished on Nov. 11, 1982 at Arizona. In the game at Arizona, one of the TDs was an intercepted fumble returned for a score which was categorized as an interception at that time (in 1982, you could not return a fumble unless it was in the air). USC's 3 interceptions returned for a touchdown also tied the Pac-12 record. USC's defense held Rice to 280 total yards. The Owls converted only 5-of-16 third downs and were penalized 4 times for 55 yards (USC was penalized 6 times for 60 yards).

After WR Jordan Addison quickly scored off a 5-yard pass from C. Williams, the Owls responded with a TD of their own from RB Ari Broussard at the end of the quarter. RB Jones scored off a 4-yard rush to kick off the second quarter, and RB Brown followed closely behind with the first TD of his career and stopped to flash the Heisman pose in the end zone for the Trojan fans. DB Calen Bullock kept the pressure on Rice as he intercepted a pass and ran it back 93 yards into the end zone to push USC ahead 28-7. The Owls responded when Broussard ran in his second TD of the day to keep Rice in the game. PK Denis Lynch closed out the half with a 25-yard field goal, the first of his career.

ILB Shane Lee opened the second half with another pick-six (40-yard interception return) and less than a minute later, fellow ILB Ralen Goforth also intercepted a pass and ran it back 31-yards to score. In the next series, the relentless Trojan defense once again picked off the Owls as DB Xamarion Gordon intercepted the fourth pass of the day. Both Addison and Jones each scored another TD in the third quarter, and RB Darwin Barlow capped off the game with a rushing TD of his own in the fourth.

Lee led the team with 8 tackles, while ILB Eric Gentry added 7 stops and Bullock tallied 6.

Rice QB Wiley Green went 8-of-13 with 1 interception, but left the game due to a right arm injury. QB TJ McMahon then entered the game and went 6-of-15 with 3 interceptions.

This was just the fourth ever meeting of the two schools and USC improved its record against Rice to 3-0-1.

GAME 2 – September 10, Palo Alto, Calif.
USC 41, Stanford 28
Att: 43,813

Stanford	7	7	0	14	--	28
USC	21	14	6	0	--	41

QB Caleb Williams went 20-of-27 for 341 yards and 4 TDs to lead the dynamic offense of the No. 10 ranked USC Trojans to a 41-28 victory over Stanford in Palo Alto, Calif. This was the Trojans' first win over the Cardinal in Stanford Stadium since 2014, and it was Lincoln Riley's first Pac-12 Conference win as head coach of the Trojans. USC is now 2-0 on the 2022 season, and 1-0 in Pac-12 Conference play.

The Trojan offense amassed 505 total yards of offense and scored five TDs in the first-half of play. USC did not see a third down until the final minute of the second half.

USC's defense collected four more turnovers in Saturday's game. The last time USC's defense forced a total of 8 turnovers in consecutive games was in 2020 when the Trojans had 5 turnovers at Utah (11/21/20) and 3 the next game versus Washington State (12/6/20).

In the first series of the game, DB Max Williams intercepted Stanford QB Tanner McKee and returned it for 32-yards. This marked the first INT of his career. He set up QB Williams and the Trojan offense to quickly score on a 5-yard pass to TE Lake McRee, the first of his career.

The Stanford offense returned to the field for its second offensive series and marched all the way to the USC 2-yard line where DB Mekhi Blackmon intercepted McKee in the end zone and returned it 17 yards. Williams then tossed a 22-yard touchdown pass to WR Jordan Addison which made the score 14-0.

Stanford put points on the board as RB E.J. Smith caught a short pass for a TD, but just 11 seconds later, Williams responded with a 75-yard TD pass to Addison.

WR Mario Williams scored his first TD as a Trojan after Max Williams forced a fumble that Blackmon recovered. This score pushed USC's lead to 28-7.

On Stanford's next possession, Smith found the end zone for a second time. But the Trojans continued to showcase Lincoln Riley's high-scoring offense as RB Travis Dye scored on a 27-yard TD run to close out the first half of play.

In the second half, PK Denis Lynch nailed a 45-yard FG, his career long. DL Tuli Tuipulotu forced a fumble, which DB Jacobe Covington recovered and set up Lynch to kick another 42-yard FG.

Stanford scored twice more in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough to top the Trojans.

USC improves to 64-34-3 overall in its series with Stanford.

Fresno State	0	10	7	0	--	17
USC	14	7	14	10	--	45

QB Caleb Williams went 25-of-37 for 284 yards and 2 TDs with 0 INTs to lead the Trojans to a 45-17 victory over Fresno State in front of 67,226 fans under the lights in the Coliseum.

USC has totaled 152 points in the first three game of the 2022 season. The last USC team to score more points through the first three games was the 2005 team which scored 178 points. That was also the last time USC scored 40 or more points in each of its first three games of a season (63-17 at Hawai'i on Sept. 3, 70-17 vs. Arkansas on Sept. 17 and 45-13 at Oregon on Sept. 24). It is the first time USC scored 40 or more points in any three consecutive games since doing it the final 2 games of the 2016 season and the first two of the 2017 season.

USC had 517 total yards in offense against the Bulldogs. The Trojans have registered over 500 yards of offense in each game this season. The last time USC had 500+ yards in three consecutive games was during the 2017 season: Oct. 28 at ASU (607), Nov. 4 vs. Arizona (642) and Nov. 11 at Colorado (522). The offense converted 3-of-3 fourth down opportunities and had 29 first downs.

RBs Travis Dye (102 rushing yards) and Austin Jones (110 rushing yards) became the first pair of USC running backs to both have 100 or more rushing yards in the same game since Nov. 3, 2018 vs. Oregon State when Aca'Cedric Ware had 205 yards rushing and Vavae Malepeai had 101.

WR Mario Williams led the Trojan offense with 77 receiving yards.

The Trojan defense held Fresno State to just 17 points. USC continued to play opportunistic defense and collected two more turnovers, an INT by TE Malcolm Epps and a fumble recovery by DL Solomon Byrd. USC's 10 total takeaways on the season are the most its recorded through the first three games of a season since it had 12 in 2004.

QB Williams located his favorite target WR Jordan Addison for a short 2-yard TD pass to kick off the game with a Trojan TD. In their second offensive series, the Trojans drove the ball down the field and Williams rushed 8-yards to score once again. Fresno State opened the second quarter with a field goal from K Abraham Montano, but the Trojans responded with their third-straight offensive series TD as Williams scored on a quarterback sneak. USC has scored a TD on its first three drives in all three games and has scored a TD on all seven of its first quarter drives this season. Additionally, Williams' 2 rushing TDs are the most in a game by a Trojan QB since Sam Darnold scored twice on the ground on Sept. 29, 2017 at Washington State. The Bulldog offense found the end zone as QB Jake Haener tossed a 39-yard TD pass to WR Erik Brooks to make the score 21-10. On the last play of the half, Haener attempted a Hail Mary toss into the end zone that was intercepted by TE Malcolm Epps.

The second half began with a sack and fumble recovery by DL Solomon Byrd which set up RB Austin Jones to score a rushing TD on the next offensive series. Bulldog RB Malik Sherrod followed by rushing 32 yards for a TD. But USC RB Travis Dye responded with an explosive 25-yard TD run to increase the Trojans' lead to 35-17. In the fourth quarter, Epps scored on a 10-yard TD reception and PK Denis Lynch nailed a 41-yard field goal to put the final points on the board for the Trojans.

ILB Eric Gentry led the team with 5 tackles, while ILB Shane Lee, DL Tuil Tuipulotu and DL Solomon Byrd each recorded 4 tackles.

Fresno State QB Jake Haener went 10-of-18 for 117 yards with 1 INT, but left the game due to a lower body injury. QB Logan Fife replaced him and went 11-of-12 for 140 yards.

USC extended its winning streak to 4-1 all-time against the Bulldogs with one win vacated due to NCAA penalty (original record 5-1).

Oregon State	0	7	0	7	--	14
USC	0	3	0	14	--	17

WR Jordan Addison made the game winning TD with 1:13 left on the clock as No. 7 USC beat Oregon State 17-14 in Corvallis, Ore. in front of 28,768 fans in Reser Stadium.

The Trojans only held the lead for 11 minutes total, all in the fourth quarter.

The USC defense shined matching its season-high 4 INTs with 4 picks.

ILB Eric Gentry had a strong performance collecting 8 tackles and an INT. He recorded a pass breakup on Oregon State's final drive and also tipped Beaver QB Chance Nolan's pass on the final play of the game that allowed USC DB Max Williams to intercept the ball and seal the Trojan victory.

RB Travis Dye was the offensive catalyst for the Trojans in USC's 17-14 win over Oregon State. He collected 133 rushing yards on 19 carries (7.0 avg.) and scored 1 TD marking his third consecutive 100-yard rushing game. It is the first time in Dye's career that he has rushed for 100 yards in 3 straight games. Dye now has 10 career 100-yard rushing games, and he recorded over 90 yards rushing in all 5 career games versus Oregon State.

QB Caleb Williams went 16-of-36 (.444) for 180 yards and 1 TD. He also rushed for 27 yards on 9 carries. Williams is now 4th in the nation for most consecutive pass attempts without an INT with 188 (11/27/21-9/24/22).

The Trojans opened the game on a failed fourth-down conversion. This was the first time in the 2022 season that USC had not scored on its opening drive nor scored in the first quarter.

After a scoreless first quarter, Oregon State struck first with RB Deshaun Fenwick's 4-yard rushing TD which put USC into its first deficit of the season.

Midway in the second quarter, Gentry made a huge defensive play by picking off Beaver QB Chance Nolan. This turnover allowed the Trojan offense to drive down the field and set up USC PK Denis Lynch to kick a 42-yard FG to put USC's first points on the board.

No scoring occurred in the third quarter. However, DB Ceyair Wright collected his first career INT to set up the Trojans to score on USC's next possession as RB Dye rushed for 7 yards to score a TD to push USC ahead 10-7 in the fourth quarter.

The Trojan defense continued to prevail, forcing a missed Beaver FG, and DB Mekhi Blackmon intercepted another pass. Oregon State responded with RB Jam Griffin's 7-yard TD run pushing the Beavers ahead 14-10 with 4:44 remaining in the game.

QB Caleb Williams then led the Trojans on a 11-play, 84-yard drive. OL Brett Neilon and other Trojan linemen were part of a critical play on the drive. On 4th and 6, they had the field-awareness to push QB Williams downfield to collect the first down. This first down kept USC's drive alive and ultimately led to Williams' 21-yard TD pass to WR Addison to push the Trojans ahead 17-14.

Oregon State's offense came back on the field, but the Trojans ended it with a tipped ball from Gentry that DB Max Williams intercepted to secure the USC victory.

The Trojans remain undefeated and improve to 4-0 (2-0 in Pac-12 Conference) on the season.

Arizona State	7	10	0	8	--	25
USC	14	7	7	14	--	42

QB Caleb Williams went 27-of-37 (.730) for 348 yards and 3 TDs to lead the Trojans to a 42-25 victory over Arizona State in the Coliseum.

Williams also rushed for 44 yards on 8 carries and ran for a TD.

This victory improved the Trojans to 5-0, which has already surpassed last year's win total.

RB Travis Dye had 62 rushing yards on 13 carries and 2 TD, while WR Jordan Addison led the receivers with 105 yards on 8 receptions.

ILB Eric Gentry, a transfer from Arizona State, led the Trojans with 6 tackles, 1.5 for loss and 0.5 sack. Fellow ILB Shane Lee also contributed 5 tackles and 0.5 sack.

USC's 3rd down conversion rate against the Sun Devils (.889) was the best single game 3rd down conversation rate in the Pac-12 Conference since 1996.

Williams led off the scoring with a 1-yard rushing TD, but the Sun Devils responded with Xazavian Valladay's 29-yard TD catch.

USC regained the lead in the first quarter as Williams tossed a 7-yard TD pass to WR Mario Williams. The Trojans held ASU to a field goal on its next offensive series. USC then put up 7 more points with another Williams TD pass to TE Malcolm Epps. The Trojans led 21-10.

Just before halftime, Sun Devil QB Jones rushed for 6 yards to score, closing the point gap to 21-17. The 17 first-half points scored by ASU were the most by a Trojan opponent in the first half of a game this season.

Although USC committed its first turnover of the season when ASU picked off Williams, the Trojan defense forced the Sun Devils to go three-and-out on their next three possessions. QB Caleb Williams briefly held the longest active streak in the FBS for most consecutive pass attempts without an interception at 215.

RB Travis Dye and WR Kyron Hudson each scored, with Hudson's being his first career TD.

The game ended with DB Calen Bullock intercepting ASU QB Jones in the final minute.

ASU QB Jones went 23-of-32 (.719) for 243 yards with 1 TD and 1 INT.

The Trojans improved to 24-14 all-time against the Sun Devils with one win vacated dur to NCAA penalty (original record 25-14).

USC is 5-0 to start a season for the first time since going 5-0 during the 2020 season, before falling in the Pac-12 Championship game. USC's 5-0 start is its fourth in the last 27 seasons (2005, 2006, 2020 & 2022). The last time USC started a season 6-0 was the 2006 season.

RB Travis Dye ran for a season-best 149 yards on a season-high 28 carries and scored 1 TD in USC's 30-14 victory over Washington State in the Coliseum. Dye's 28 carries were the most rushing attempts in a game by a Trojan since Ronald Jones II had 30 versus Stanford on Dec. 1, 2017 in the Pac-12 Championship game, that was won by USC 36- 21. It was also Dye's fourth 100-yard rushing game of the season and 11th of his career.

The Trojans improve to 6-0 overall and 4-0 in Pac-12 Conference play. The Trojans last started a season 6-0 in 2006 when USC finished 11-2 overall, with a Pac-10 co-championship, a win over Michigan in the Rose Bowl and a No. 4 final AP ranking.

WR Mario Williams led the receiving corps with 82 yards on 4 catches with 2 TDs. QB Caleb Williams was 15-of-29 for 188 yards.

DL Tuli Tuipulotu was the star on the defensive side of the ball, recording 5 tackles with 4 for loss and a game-high 3 sacks. Tuipulotu fell one short of tying the school record of 4 sacks in a game done 4 times (Marcus Cotton against Oregon State in 1987, Junior Seau against Oregon State in 1989, Tim Ryan against UCLA in 1989 and Lawrence Jackson against Arizona State in 2007). This was the fifth consecutive game in which Tuipulotu had at least 1 tackle for loss, and he now has 12.5 tackles for loss on the season.

ILB Ralen Goforth stepped in for an injured ILB Shane Lee and led the team with 8 tackles, while DL Nick Figueroa added 2 sacks.

PK Denis Lynch went 3-for-3 on field goals and was perfect on all 3 of his PATs.

After stopping the Cougars on the opening possession, WR Williams caught his first TD for 38 yards and Lynch scored a field goal on the next Trojan drive to push USC ahead 10-0 in the first quarter.

Washington State responded with a TD pass from QB Cameron Ward to WR Robert Ferrell on the first play of the second quarter. Ward later threw a 1-yard TD pass to RB Nakia Watson to push the Cougars ahead 14-10. WSU only reached the red zone twice in the game, resulting in both of these TDs.

Moments before halftime, RB Travis Dye shimmied his way through the Cougar defense and found the end zone to give USC a 17-14 lead.

In the second half, Williams made a diving catch in the end zone to score his second TD of the game. The Trojan defense shut out Washington State the entire half, and Lynch made 2 more field goals to lock the final score at 30-14.

Utah	7	14	7	15	--	43
USC	14	14	7	7	--	42

"The only thing I can promise you is that we will not be undefeated." QB Caleb Williams relayed this message to the media after USC's heartbreaking 42-43 loss to Utah in Salt Lake City. And he's correct; everything is still on the table for the Trojans to have a historic season.

Williams played a remarkable game and threw for 381 yards and 5 TDs, both season-highs. He went 24-for-42 (.595) and rushed for an additional 57 yards, but the Trojans still suffered their first loss of the season to the Utes.

RB Travis Dye rushed for 76 yards on 11 carries and scored a TD. Dye became USC's first RB since Ronald Jones II to have a rushing TD in 6 straight games. Jones did it in the final 6 games of 2017.

WR Jordan Addison led the team with 106 receiving yards on 7 catches and scored a TD, his seventh of the season. He left the game in the third quarter with an injury.

The Trojan offense made a statement quickly with a TD from Dye on the opening drive. Addison's TD on the next possession gave USC a 14-0 lead. Utah scored a TD to close out the first quarter. But Williams responded by finding WR Kyron Hudson for a 2-yard TD early in the second quarter.

Utah, led by QB Cam Rising, began to find its rhythm. Rising ran for his first TD of the game towards the end of the quarter. USC TE Josh Falo made a 3-yard diving catch with 1:15 left in the half to score. This was Falo's first reception since 2019. Utah had the final word of the half as Rising threw to WR Devaughn Vele to make the score 28-14 going into halftime.

In the second half, both teams traded TDs. Rising found seemingly unstoppable TE Dalton Kincaid in the end zone. But just one minute later, Williams silenced the Ute fan celebrations with a second TD pass to Falo.

ILB Eric Gentry made a momentum changing defensive play by forcing a fumble that was recovered by DL Stanley Ta'ufo'ou on the Trojan 28-yard line, but USC was forced to punt on the following drive.

Rising ran for a 1-yard TD in the fourth quarter. But Williams subsequently tossed a 20-yard TD pass to WR Michael Jackson III, his first career TD, to give the Trojans a 42-35 lead.

In a dramatic ending, Utah scored on a 6-minute, 75-yard drive as Rising ran into the end zone. The Utes then scored on a two-point conversion to win the game.

The Trojans still control their own destiny as they pursue a Pac-12 Football Championship Game berth. They will need to win all four remaining Pac-12 games to contend for the conference title.

QB Caleb Williams played lights out as he threw for a career-best 411 yards and 5 TDs in USC's 45-37 victory over Arizona on Saturday, Oct. 29 in Tucson. He went 31-of-45 (.689) with zero INTs. He also rushed for 14 yards on 4 carries. It was the first time that a USC QB had consecutive games with 5 passing TDs since Kedon Slovis threw 5 consecutive TDs vs. Washington State and at UCLA in 2020.

While WRs Jordan Addison and Mario Williams were out with injury, the Trojan wide receiving corps did not miss a beat. Williams distributed the ball to 10 different receivers throughout the night. WR Tahj Washington lit up the field scoring 2 TDs and had 7 receptions for 118 yards. After being plagued by injuries, WR Kyle Ford had a long-awaited breakout game. He had 114 receiving yards on 6 receptions and scored 1 TD. It was the first time since Nov. 7, 2020 vs. Arizona State that USC had 2 receivers with 100+ receiving yards in the same game (Drake London and Amon-Ra St. Brown).

Williams also found WR Brenden Rice in the end zone. He had 5 receptions for 62 yards and 1 TD, the first of his Trojan career.

RB Travis Dye had another 100+ yard rushing game as he ran for 113 yards on 20 carries and scored 1 TD. This was his 5th 100+ yard rushing game of the season. Dye is the first USC player with a rushing TD in 7 straight games since Ronald Jones II did it in the final 7 games of 2016.

USC amassed 621 offensive yards on the night.

DB Bryson Shaw was a bright spot on the Trojan defense. He recorded his first interception of the season by picking off Arizona QB Jayden de Laura in the third quarter and returning it for 17 yards. Shaw's interception resulted in a USC TD on the very next play. He recorded 7 tackles (5 solo) with 1 for loss of 3 yards. He also had 1 PBU.

In the first quarter Williams was 12-of-15 for 159 yards, while throwing to 7 different receivers. RB Raleek Brown scored on a 6-yard swing pass and Lynch made a 45-yard field goal in the first quarter.

Arizona kept the score even at 10-10 also scoring on a TD and field goal.

In the second quarter, Williams scrambled out of the pocket and threw to WR Brenden Rice in the back of the end zone to push USC ahead 17-10. This was Rice's first TD as a Trojan. The Wildcats came close to scoring on a 5:34 long drive but had to settle for a field goal as USC went into halftime with the lead.

WR Tahj Washington scored his first TD of the game on USC's first drive of the second half, and DB Bryson Shaw picked off Arizona QB Jayden De Laura setting up the Trojans for another TD from Washington.

At the end of the third quarter Arizona tallied 2 TDs making the score 31-29. But the Trojan offense continued to prevail as WR Kyle Ford and RB Travis Dye both found the end zone. With Williams' dynamic performance, the Trojans left the desert victorious.

USC is now off to its first 7-1 start since the 2008 season. Lincoln Riley is the first USC head coach to start his career 7-1 since John Robinson in 1976. Riley is also the first Trojan head coach other than Pete Carroll to start any season 7-1 or better since Larry Smith went 10-0 in 1988.

QB Caleb Williams passed for 360 yards, rushed for a touchdown and threw 2 of his 4 scoring passes to Michael Jackson III, leading No. 9 USC Football to a 41-35 victory over California Nov. 5 in front of 64,916 people in the Coliseum.

In his last three games, Williams has passed for 1,152 yards with 14 TDs and no interceptions. Since the 2004 football season, no QB has thrown more TDs through their first 9 games while also throwing 1 or fewer INTs than Williams with 28 TDs and 1 INT. Through their first 9 games, Justin Fields of Ohio State had 27 TDs and 1 INT in 2019, and Tua Tagovailoa had 27 TDs and 1 INT in 2018.

This is the second time in the last four seasons that a USC QB has had 5 games with 340+ passing yards. Kedon Slovis had 5 games with 340+ yards in 2019.

WR Tahj Washington had 7 receptions for 112 yards and a TD in his second 100+ yard performance of the season.

RB Travis Dye led the team with 98 rushing yards on 15 carries and scored 1 TD. It was his eighth consecutive game with a rushing TD. The last Trojan with a rushing TD in 8 or more consecutive games in 1 season was Marcus Allen in 1981 when he scored a rushing TD in 9 consecutive games. QB Williams also rushed for 38 yards and 1 TD.

At the end of the first quarter, USC trailed 6-7 due to a bad snap which resulted in no extra point. It was the first time this season USC was not leading or tied after the first quarter. With TDs from RB Travis Dye and WR Michael Jackson III, USC led 20-7 going into halftime.

Jackson scored his second TD of the game early in the third quarter, and Cal responded with a TD from WR Monroe Young. WR Tahj Washington scored the fifth TD of the evening, but Cal QB Jack Plummer threw 2 more TDs to close the gap 34-27.

TE Lake McRee caught a fourth quarter TD pass to push USC ahead 41-27. , Cal's Jadyn Ott later found the end zone and the Bears successfully executed a 2-point conversion. But it wasn't enough to outscore the Trojans.

The Trojans improved to 8-1 overall and 6-1 in Pac-12 play.

USC 55, Colorado 17
Att: 61,206

CU	3	0	7	7	--	17
USC	2	24	15	14	--	55

Leading Heisman contender QB Caleb Williams went 14-of-26 (.538) for 268 and 3 TDs and 1 INT to lead USC to a 55-17 victory over Colorado in the Coliseum under the Friday night lights in front of a crowd of 61,206.

The Trojans ended the night with a win, but also suffered a major loss as RB Travis Dye's collegiate career ended with an injury as he went down after an awkward tackle. The entire team came out and surrounded the cart that took him off the field in one of the most emotional displays of support seen after an injury. Dye has been both a physical leader on the field and inspirational leader throughout the culture change implemented by Coach Riley.

Williams totaled 5 TD, 3 through the air and 2 rushing. Williams is the first USC QB to have 2 games with multiple rushing TDs in the same season since complete records were first available for this stat in 1972. This was the fourth consecutive game that Williams has accounted for 5 total TDs. He threw just his second pick of the season. Williams has accounted for 37 total touchdowns in 10 games at USC.

Defensively DL Tuli Tuipulotu recorded 2.5 sacks and DB Calen Bullock nabbed his 4th INT of the season.

After Williams threw an early INT, the Trojan defense scored a safety moments later when Tuipulotu pressured Shrout into an intentional grounding penalty in the end zone. The Buffs kicked a field goal to take a 3-2 lead at the conclusion of the first quarter.

Williams then put his foot on the gas and rushed for TDs on back-to-back drives. After Dye's injury, the Trojans scored another TD as Williams found Rice in the end zone on a 32-yard TD pass and PK Denis Lynch kicked a field goal.

The Buffs scored first in the second half when Fontenot had a 3-yard TD run, but Williams responded with a 61 yard bomb to WR Tahj Washington for a TD. Holder Will Rose ran a fake kick into the end zone for a two-point conversion that went viral on social media with his backflip celebration.

Bullock picked off Shrout which put the USC offense back on the field. RB Austin Jones scored on a 12-yard pass from Williams. In the end zone, he held up "2" and "6" on his fingers in honor of Dye.

QB Miller Moss entered the game in the fourth quarter to relieve Williams. He led the Trojans on a scoring drive which culminated with a TD pass to RB Raleek Brown. RB Darwin Barlow also scored in the fourth quarter.

Buff QB J.T. Shrout passed for 124 yards, and RB Alex Fontenot rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown for the Buffaloes

USC now leads the Buffs 16-0 in their all-time series.

GAME 11 – November 19, Rose Bowl
USC 48, UCLA 45
Att: 70,865

UCLA	14	7	10	14	--	45
USC	0	20	14	14	--	48

Leading Heisman Trophy candidate QB Caleb Williams went 32-of-43 for a career-high 470 yards and 2 TDs and rushed for 33 yards on 8 carries with 1 TD to lead the Trojans to victory over crosstown rival UCLA 48-45 in the Rose Bowl.

Williams' star shined bright on the national stage in primetime on FOX. The country watched as he put up historic numbers while leading the Trojans to victory. The Victory Bell is back home to Troy.

His performance this week propelled USC to the No. 5 ranking in both the AP Poll and the USA Today Coaches Poll.

Williams' 503 total yards set a USC single game record. The previous record was held by Kedon Slovis who had 502 yards versus UCLA in 2019. Williams' 503 total yards was also the most by any player in the series' 92-game history.

RB Austin Jones led the Trojans with a season-best 120 rushing yards and 2 TDs.

WR Jordan Addison tallied 11 receptions for a season-best 178 yards and 1 TD. WR Kyle Ford also played an impressive game collecting 3 receptions for 73 yards and 1 TD.

USC's 5 consecutive games with 40 points or more are the most since the 2003 team had 7 consecutive 40+ point games.

Early in the first quarter, UCLA took a 14-0 lead. It was the first time an opponent has scored 14 points against USC in the first quarter. It was also the first time USC has trailed by 14 points at any moment in a game this season.

Although battling from behind, the Trojans never panicked. USC fought back to score two TDs (from Williams and Jones) and a FG from Lynch.

The USC defense picked off Thompson-Robinson twice in the second quarter (DB Mekhi Blackmon and ILB Shane Lee). Lee's INT put USC in position to have PK Denis Lynch kick a 49-yard FG to end the first half.

USC now leads the nation in passes intercepted with 18 on the season. USC is also No. 3 in the nation in turnovers gained with 25.

Coming out of halftime, UCLA kicked a FG. But in the Trojans' offensive series, Williams found Addison in the end zone with a 35-yard TD pass to give USC its first lead of the game at 27-24.

From that point on, the Trojans never trailed again. RB Austin Jones, WR Kyle Ford and RB Darwin Barlow all scored TDs for USC. But a play by the Trojan defense silenced the Bruin faithful's hopes of retaining the Bell.

RUSH Korey Foreman made the play of his Trojan career by dropping back into coverage and intercepting Thompson-Robinson's pass to end the game. The Trojans avenged last season's 33-63 loss in a dramatic fashion, and did it on the road.

Last summer at Pac-12 Football Media Day, USC head coach Lincoln Riley made this prophetic statement:

"We didn't come here to play for second, we are not wired that way," Riley said on that late-summer day. "We came here competitively to win championships, win them now and to win them for a long time."

And the Trojans are on their way to doing just that by punching their ticket to the Pac-12 Championship Game in Las Vegas.

USC 38, Notre Dame 27
Att: 72,613

ND	0	7	7	13	--	27
USC	10	7	7	14	--	38

Leading Heisman Trophy candidate QB Caleb Williams lit up the Coliseum with his 4 TDs as USC defeated Notre Dame 38-27 and brought home the Jeweled Shillelagh for the first time since 2016. Williams went 18-for-22 (.818) for 232 yards and 1 TD. Williams also had 9 carries for 35 yards and 3 TDs.

Williams has now tallied 44 TDs this season. The 44 total TDs breaks the previous school record by a QB of 41 by Matt Barkley (2011) and Cody Kessler (2014). His 351 rushing yards this season is also the most by a USC QB in the last 70 years since complete records were available. The previous record was 342 by Jim Sears in 1952. He also leads the USC football team with 10 rushing TDs on the season.

Lincoln Riley's 11 wins ties for the most by a USC head coach in his regular season debut, matching the 11 wins by Howard Jones in 1925 and John Robinson in 1976. The 7-victory increase from last season matches the biggest one-season turnaround in USC history. The other 7-game improvement was when the 1962 National Champion Trojans won 11 games after winning only 4 in the 1961 season.

USC kept their College Football Playoff hopes alive as they became the first team this season to gain 400 yards and score more than 32 points against the Irish while completing its first 11-win regular season since 2008.

WR Tahj Washington caught an early TD pass from Williams to jump-start the Trojan offense, and PK Denis Lynch kicked a 31-yard FG to put the Trojans ahead 10-0.

After a Notre Dame TD, Williams rushed up the middle on an RPO to score a 5-yard TD.

ILB Ralen Goforth recovered a fumble by the Irish that set up a 74-yard drive that ended with a rushing TD from RB Raleek Brown.

Notre Dame scored again, but Williams responded with his second rushing TD of the night. As the Coliseum crowd chanted "Heisman!", Williams struck the Heisman pose in the end zone.

DB Calen Bullock recorded his fifth interception of the season for USC in the fourth quarter. Williams then sealed the win with his third rushing touchdown by sprinting 16 yards through the heart of the Notre Dame defense for the 44th total TD of his incredible season.

The Trojans now have a short week ahead as they prepare for a rematch against Utah in the Pac-12 Championship Game. The Utes handed the Trojans their only loss of the season.

Williams' pocket elusiveness, impressive arm and rushing skills bolstered his Heisman resume as he set single-season records for quarterbacks in total touchdowns and yards rushing.

The Utes gave the Trojans their only losses this season.

The Utes produced 533 yards of offense in the rematch, and Cam Rising passed for 310 yards and 3 TDs.

The Trojans outgained Utah in total yards 194-70 in the first quarter of play, and they took an early 17-3 lead in the second quarter.

After USC failed to pick up a fourth-and-8 from Utah's 37-yard line, the Utes scored two touchdowns in the final 3:55 of the first half, to tie the game at 17. Utah dominated the second half and outscored the Trojans 30-7.

QB Caleb Williams threw for 462 yards and 5 TDs, setting a Cotton Bowl record. He was 37-for-52 passing in No. 8 USC's 45-46 loss to Tulane in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 2. The Trojans (11-3) matched the biggest turnaround in school history. It was a seven-win improvement over last season's 4-8 record before Riley and Williams arrived on the West Coast.

Tulane's RB Tyjae Spears ran for 205 yards and his career-best fourth touchdown started the final scoring surge for the American Athletic Conference champion Green Wave (12-2), who completed an FBS-record 10-win turnaround around after going 2-10 last season. They were in the New Year's Six game as the highest-ranked Group of Five team.

WR Brenden Rice had career bests with six catches for 174 yards and two touchdowns. Fellow WR Tahj Washington had five catches for 109 yards. The Cotton Bowl was Williams' third game this season with five TD passes.

The Trojans, who never trailed until that final touchdown, jumped ahead 14-0 when Williams threw TD passes on each of their first two possessions. His 9-yard TD to WR Michael Jackson III capped the game-opening drive that took 9 minutes, the longest by time for USC this season, and WR Terrell Bynum's 3-yard catch capped a 95-yard drive early in the second quarter.

Tulane tied the game at 14 on Pratt's touchdown pass to WR Jha'Quan Jackson, an 87-yard catch-and-run. But USC scored twice in the final 2:21 of the first half, on RB Raleek Brown's 39-yard run and Rice's 4-yard catch with 12 seconds left.

After Spears' 4-yard TD run with 4:07 left, the Green Wave opted to kick deep instead of trying an onside kick. WR Mario Williams signaled for a fair catch, but fumbled the ball out of bounds at the 1. Two plays later, Tulane DT Patrick Jenkins met USC RB Austin Jones in the end zone for a safety.

The Green Wave then converted a fourth-and-10. Watts then held on despite a crushing hit from a DB Bryson Shaw that left both of them on the ground after a 24-yard gain to the 6 with 18 seconds left. Tulane's Bauman caught a 6-yard touchdown from Pratt with 9 seconds left to win the game.
